

The London Gazette.

Numb. 9305.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 22, to Tuesday September 25, 1753.

Constantinople, August 16.

E Zade Effendi, who was formerly Musty, and has been some Time exiled at his House on the Bosphorus, died there a few Days ago.

Moscow, Aug. 20. From the Preparations which are making at Court, it is believed that the Journey, which the Empress has for some Time proposed making into the Ukraine, will soon take Place; and we are informed, that by the Care of Count Rasoumoffsky every Thing is actually ready at the Castle of Kiow, for the Reception of her Imperial Majesty and her Retinue. As the Troops, which have been for some Time encamped on the Frontiers of the said Province, and which were to have separated at the End of this Month, in order to return to their respective Quarters, have received Orders to remain encamped during all the next Month, it is inferred from thence, that her Imperial Majesty, in her Journey to Kiow, may make a Tour to that Camp. The Marquis d'Arragona, a Neapolitan Nobleman, is arrived here, in order to engage himself in the Service of this Court. He is soliciting the Rank of Colonel, and there is a great Appearance that it will be granted him.

Naples, Aug. 28. Within these few Days two Projects have been presented to the King, which, if they are put in Execution, cannot fail of producing great Advantages to the Commerce; the first is, to erect a Causey or paved Road, which is to reach from Salerno almost to Reggio in Calabria, in order to facilitate the Transportation of Merchandize between these two Cities; and the second is, to turn the Course of the Volturno, to render that River navigable, and to make it pass by Caserta.

Genoa, Sept. 1. The Prince d'Yachi, who was formerly Ambassador from the King of the Two Sicilies to the Court of Spain, passed thro' this City a few Days ago, on his Return to Naples. The last Letters which the Republick have received from Corsica, are not favourable, and give Room to apprehend, that the Troubles in that Island, instead of diminishing, will daily increase.

Genoa, Sept. 3. The Government has given Orders for arming again two or three Feluccas, in order to send them to cruize on the Coasts of Corsica, that they may more effectually prevent the Malecontents of that Island from receiving any Provisions or military Stores.

Hermanstadt in Transylvania, Sept. 1. The States of this Principality, who opened their Diet on the 22d past, continued to deliberate on the Demands which have been made to them on the Part of our August Sovereign, by the Count Wenzlas de Wallis, whom her Majesty the Queen of Hungary has named her Commissary to this Assembly.

Turin, Sept. 2. The Marquis de Crussol, Minister Plenipotentiary from the French King to the Court of the Infant Duke, arrived here from Paris the 29th of last Month: The next Day he had the Honour to be presented to his Majesty and the Royal Family, and the Day before Yesterday he continued his Rout to Parma.

Rome, Sept. 4. We continue to be assured, that the Promotion of Cardinals, which has been so long expected, will take Place the 19th Instant.

Milan, Sept. 5. The Duke of Modena is soon expected here to take Possession of the Employment of Governor General of the Austrian Lombardy; and every Thing is preparing with great Diligence at the Castle of this City, for the Reception of that Prince.

Madrid, Sept. 6. On the 26th past, an Order, signed by his Majesty, was issued from the Secretary of State's Office, forbidding the Subjects of this Crown to carry on any Commerce with the Danes. There is Advice from Cadiz, that Don Ventura de Ozio, Administrator of the Customs, died there lately, and that he is succeeded by Don Francisco de Villafota, before Collector de Millones. From the same Place we learn, that the Hon. Captain Howe, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Dolphin, now in that Bay, having been ordered to go to the Port of Sallee, to inform himself of the Intention of the Moors, with Regard to Great Britain, was answered, That their Design was to observe their Treaties with his Britannick Majesty. The same Letters add, that a Dutch Ship from the Westward had seen six Algerines off Cape St. Mary's, which made People very uneasy for the South Sea Ships hourly expected.

[Price Two-Pence.]