By the King,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-seventh Day of this Instant September; We, with the Advice of our Privy Council, do hereby Publish and Declare, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Twenty-seventh Day of September, to Thursday the Fifteenth Day of November next: And we have given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And we do hereby further Declare our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall, on the said Fifteenth Day of November next, be held, and sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said Fifteenth Day of November next.

Given at our Court at Kensington the Twenty-sixth Day of September 1753, in the Twenty-seventh Year of our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 26th Day of September, 1753.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in his Privy Council.

Whereas William Cuthbertson, William Steedman, William Baird, Adam Lillie, James Manson, James Lillie, and William Lennox, all Boatmen at Aberdour, were upon the Twenty-third Day of July last charged by Information of a credible Person upon Oath, by him subscribed before Mr. Archibald Murray, of Murrayfield,

Advocate, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County of Edinburgh in Scotland, with having been guilty, upon the Eighth Day of the said Month of July, of being, together with diverse other Persons, assembled at Dalgety in the County of Fife; and there having surrounded four Soldiers who were employed to defend a Seizure, made by a Custom-house Officer, of Twenty-nine Anchors of Run Brandy, wrested and took from them their Arms, and deforced the said Custom-house Officer, and took away the Brandy.—Which Information was afterwards certified by the said Archibald Murray, under his Hand and Seal, to one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who has laid the same before his Majesty in his Privy Council, pursuant to the late Act of Parliament of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty in that Case made and provided.—His Majesty doth, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, by this his Order in his Privy Council, require and command, that the said William Cuthbertson, William Steedman, William Baird, Adam Lillie, James Manson, James Lillie, and William Lennox, and each of them, do surrender himself and themselves, within the Space of Forty Days after the first Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, to any of the Lords of Justiciary, or to any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Scotland.
