Dublin, October 11.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual
and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to repeat to your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person, Royal Family, and Government; and to assure your Majesty, that our Hearts are full of Gratitude for the many Benefits and Advantages which we enjoy under your just and mild Administration; our Religion protected and cultivated; our Rights and Privileges preserved and supported; our Laws duly and justly executed; our Commerce and Manufactures encouraged and extended; and all that is dear to a free, loyal, and dutiful People, made the Object of your Majesty's Paternal Affection and Regard.

We beseech your Majesty to accept of our unfeigned Thanks for your gracious Intention of continuing to us your Royal Favour and Protection, in providing for the Support and Encouragement of the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, that most valuable and important Branch of our Trade!

We humbly offer to your Majesty our sincere Thanks, for the Instance you have been graciously pleased to give us of your Attention and Regard to the Interest and Welfare of this Kingdom, in continuing his Grace the Duke of Dorset our Chief Governor, of whose Abilities and Fidelity, your Majesty has had so full Experience, in the several important Trusts which have been reposed in him, and which he has discharged with the greatest Honour to himself, and Advantage to the Publick.

We assure your Majesty, that we will carry on the Business of this Session with that Candour, Temper, and Unanimity, which will most effectually advance the publick Service, and will afford, we doubt not, the most acceptable Proof of our grateful and affectionate Duty to the best of Princes.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will take the first Opportunity to transmit this dutiful and affectionate Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to express our highest Sentiments of Gratitude for the many signal Instances we have received of your Majesty's Paternal Goodness, humbly assuring your Majesty, that we shall be always ready to give your Majesty the most convincing Proofs of our Loyalty and affectionate Duty.

We return our humble Thanks to your Maesty, for continuing his Grace the Duke of Dorset in the Government of this Kingdom, from whose Experience of our Loyalty and Zeal for your Majesty's Service, from whose just Regard to the Honour of the Crown, and sincere Wishes for the Prosperity of this Country, we may reasonably expect that the Business of this Session will be carried on with Candour, Temper, and Unanimity.

It is with the justest Confidence we place our Dependance on your Majesty's gracious Favour and Protection, for the Support and Encouragement of our principal and most essential Branch of Trade, the Linen Manufacture.

We are most truly sensible of your Majesty's Royal Care and Goodness, in recommending to us the Application of so much of the Money remaining in the Treasury, as shall be necessary for the Discharge of the National Debt, or of such Part thereof as shall be judged expedient.

We on our Part shall, with the greatest Cheerfulness, grant the necessary Supplies for maintaining the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Government; and we shall, on all Occasions, heartily concur in such Measures as shall appear proper for the Security of your Majesty's People, and for enabling your Majesty to provide against future Dangers.

The true Interest of Ireland we shall ever make the great Object of our Attention, and esteem a firm and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person, Royal Family, and Government, as inseparably connected with it; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that this always has been, and ever shall be, the unalterable Principle of your Majesty's faithful Commons, as a just Tribute to the best of Princes.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will forthwith transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord
Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual
and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, humbly present to your Grace our Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne; and beg Leave to declare, unanimously, our unfeigned Joy upon your Grace's Return to the Government of this Kingdom.

Our Experience of that Candour, which adds Lustre to the many eminent Virtues inherent in your Grace, will not suffer us to doubt, that we have been, and shall be, upon all Occasions, faithfully represented to His Majesty by your Grace, as most zealously devoted to His Sacred Person, Royal Family, and Government.

We should as ill consult our Interest as our Dignity, did we not resolve fully to answer your Grace's just Expectations, by conducting all our Proceedings with Candour, Temper, and Unanimity. They are the genuine Result of our affectionate Duty to the best of Princes, and will be the strongest Proof of our Zeal for the true Interest of our Country.

The Protestant Charter Schools, established under the happy Influence of your Grace's former Government, and upon all Occasions affectionately recommended by your Grace, are deservedly the Object of our constant Attention; and we shall industriously improve every Opportunity of extending the Benefits of that wise and useful Institution.

The Assurance of your Grace's Assistance, so often and so signally experienced, cannot fail to animate our Endeavours for the farther Advancement of the Linen Manufacture, the most valuable and important Branch of our Trade: The present flourishing State of it we thankfully attribute to the repeated Instances of His Majesty's Paternal Goodness, and rely, with all dutiful Confidence, on the Continuance of the same Royal Favour and Protection.

Your Grace has, with the justest Reason, declined making Professions of your Zeal for the Welfare of this Kingdom. Your Grace's Conduct, through the whole Course of your former and present Administration, is our sure Pledge of your unalterable Regard to the true Interest of Ireland.

Warm with these Sentiments, we think ourselves called upon, by every Motive, of Prudence, Gratitude, and Justice, cheerfully to concur in every Measure which may most effectually promote the publick Service, maintain the Dignity and Honour of His Majesty's Government, and render it, as far as in us lies, easy and happy in your Grace's Hands.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor,

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Am extremely obliged to your Lordships for this very affectionate Address. I cannot sufficiently acknowledge the many Instances I have received of your Regard and approbation. You may depend upon the Continuance of my sincerest Endeavours to promote the Prosperity and Happiness of this Kingdom.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, return your Grace our most humble Thanks for your most excellent Speech from the Throne, and beg Leave, at the same Time, to congratulate your Grace on your Return to the Government of this Kingdom.

The Justice your Grace does to our zealous Affections to His Majesty; your faithful Representations of our inviolable Attachment to His Sacred Person, Royal Family and Government; your Regard to the Honour of His Crown; and your sincere Wishes for the Prosperity of this Kingdom, cannot fail of raising in us proper Acknowledgments, and of engaging us to proceed in the Business of this Session, with Candour, Temper, and Unanimity.

The Support of His Majesty's Dignity, the Ease and Honour of the Government of this Kingdom, can never be out of the View of the most dutiful and loyal Subjects to the best of Kings.

We entirely rely on His Majesty's gracious Favour and Protection, in providing for the Support and Encouragement of our Linen Manufacture. Your Grace's Promise to assist the farther Advancement of it, and your recommending to our Care the wise and useful Institution of the Protestant Charter Schools, are pleasing Instances of your Grace's Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of this Kingdom.

It is our Inclination as well as Duty to act in Concert with your Grace, in the Pursuit of the true Interest of our Country; and we promise ourselves, from the great Trust His Majesty has reposed in your Grace, and from your Experience of our Loyalty and Zeal for His Majesty's Service, all Advantages a most dutiful and faithful People may expect.

H. Alcock, }*

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer,

I Return you my sincere Thanks for this very obliging Address. It gives me the highest Satisfaction to find that my Endeavours for promoting the Prosperity and the true Interest of this Kingdom, meets with the unanimous Approbation of the House of Commons.

Naples, September 20. The King made another Tour on Saturday last to Caserta, from whence his Majesty returned the same Night. It is generally thought, that the Prince d'Ardefe, formerly Ambassador from this Court to that of France, will be appointed Vice-Roy of Sicily. Yesterday an Express arrived from Versailles, with the News, that the Dauphiness, Sister to the Queen our most gracious Sovereign, was happily delivered, the 8th of this Month, of a Prince.

Genoa, Sept. 22. A Placart has been published here, within these few Days, in which the Government declares, that although the Commonalty and People of St. Remo have rendered themselves guilty of Rebellion, by the Step which they had taken in the Month of June last, and in Consequence of which, there was all the Reason in the World severely to chastise them; yet the Republick, from a Principle of Clemency which she shews to all her Subjects, has determined to offer a general Pardon to all those who have had any Part in the said Commotion.

Madrid, Oct. 1. By a Letter from Faro, dated the 15th of August, we have the following melancholy Account. Two Days ago the Captain of a Catalan Vessel, which came to anchor off that Place, wrote to the Spanish Consul there, acquainting him, that he had met at Sea a Brigantine, without any People on board, which, by the Papers he had found, he judged to be English, for which Reason he desired that one of that Nation might be sent to him. Accordingly John Lampriere, a British Merchant of that Place, went immediately, when the Captain informed him, that about Eight o'Clock that Morning, he met the abovementioned Brigantine at Sea, and suspecting, by her sailing, that she had no one to direct her Course, he sent some of his Men in his Boat to examine her, who, as he expected, did not find any living Creature on board; that they observed every Thing to be in great Disorder, the Master's Escutore broke open, and some Blood dried upon the Floor near the Cabin; by which, as well as by several other Circumstances, they imagined that some Violence had been committed. Mr. Lampriere went immediately on board the Brigantine to take Possession of her, when he found all the Catalans had said to be exactly true, and her Cargo untouched. By the Papers found on board, it appeared, that this Vessel is the Christopher, John Herron, Master, bound from Malaga to Dublin. There were several Bills of Lading in the Cabin and a rough Journal continued as far as Six o'Clock in the Afternoon of Friday the 10th of August, but no Mediterranean Pass. Since receiving the above Account from Faro, we have been informed by Letters from Cadiz, that upon News being received there of what had happened to the English Brigantine, mentioned above, they had stopped a small Vessel, which had been observed (though no one could give any Account of her) to put in several Times at a Place called Huelva in Andalusia: Five of her Crew were taken; but the rest, amounting to about twenty more, were said to be gone upon an Expedition, to seize two new Xebeques, that were in a small Port near Huelva, called Moguer. These Letters add, that this Gang of Pyrates consists of People of several Nations, and that the five, who were taken, were to be tried in a short Time, when it was not doubted but that they would, amongst other Things, confess the above Affair, as Pieces of the Mediterranean Pass, belonging to the Brigantine, were, it was said, found upon them.

Hambourg, Oct. 5. We are very attentive here to see the Orders observed, which our Council of Regency have judged proper to prescribe, with Regard to the Vessels and Merchandizes, which shall arrive in our Port from the Levant, and in particular from the Isle of Rhodes, where the Plague has for some Time committed great Ravages. According to the last Advices which we have received here from Petersbourg, the Russian Squadron, which has been cruizing in the Baltick, in order to exercise the Sailors, is daily expected to return into the Ports of Constadt and Revel, there to be laid up.

Whitehall, Oct. 16.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Arthur Owen, Esq; to be Governor and Captain of the Castle and Garrison of Pendennis, in the County of Cornwall, in the Room of Colonel Laforey, deceased.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Patrick Douglas, Esq, to be Town Major of the Town and Garrison of Portsmouth.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Gabriel Le Pipre, Esq; to be Captain of the Independent Company of Invalids doing Duty in the Castle and Garrison of Pendennis, in the County of Cornwall, whereof ——— Sawyer, Esq; deceased, was late Captain.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint George Carr, Esq; to be Captain in the Regiment of Invalids, commanded by Colonel John Parsons.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint George Tash, Esq; to be Lieutenant in the Third Regiment of Foot Guards, commanded by the Right Honourable John Earl of Rothes, Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Forces.

Whitehall, October 12, 1753,

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That an Incendiary Letter, was sent, on the 16th of September last past, by the Post, from London, to Hale Wortham, Junior, of Royston in the County of Cambridge, Gentleman, requiring him to lay One Hundred Pounds, at the Outside of his Gate, on the Monday, then next following, by Two o'Clock in the Morning, and threatening, in Case of Failure, to murder him, or fire his House; and also, that a second Incendiary Letter was likewise sent, on the 7th of this Instant October, by the Post, from London, to the said Mr. Wortham, threatening him with Death, if he did not lay the said Sum of One Hundred Pounds, in the Highway, by One o'Clock on the Monday Morning, then next following; and that, if he set any Body to watch, his whole Family should be murdered; His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice, the Persons, concerned in writing, and sending, the said two Incendiary Letters, is, hereby, pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons, that actually wrote, and sent, the said Letters,) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices, therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended, and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And, as a farther Encouragement, I do, hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Person, or Persons, making such Discovery as aforesaid to be paid, upon the Conviction of the principal Offender or Offenders, by me,

H. Wortham, Junr.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
