Abdulah Pascha, who is ordered from the Paschalyck of Cairo to Aleppo, is detained there by the usurped Power of Ibrahim Cheaia and others, who will not suffer him to depart, until he reimburses 250,000 Dollars, which, they say, he has taken from the Country without a just Claim.

Petersbourg, Sept. 21. The 16th of this Month, being the Name-Day of the Empress, that Feast was celebrated with great Pomp and Splendor. About Ten o'Clock in the Morning, the most distinguished Persons in this City having assembled in rich Habits at the Palace of the Knees Gollitsin our Governor, they accompanied his Excellency to Divine Service, during which, three Discharges of Cannon were made from the Fortrefs and the Admiralty. This Nobleman afterwards returned Home with the same brilliant Company, and gave a sumptuous Repast of many Tables: In the Evening the Front of his House, as also those of the principal Houses in the City, were magnificently illuminated.

Florence, Sept. 28. In Consequence of the new Regulation, they are here enlisting Men for the new Regiment of Dragoons, but neither the Colonel, or any of the Officers are named. Circular Letters have been sent to all the Communities where the under Officers of the Militia resided, to notify to them, that they are to be free from all Duty at the End of this Month. Nothing has taken Place as yet relating to the Tribunals of Justice, but it is expected that a Regulation with Regard to them will soon be made publick.

Vienna, Sept. 29. Their Imperial Majesties, who returned last Wednesday from Hollitsch to Schonbrun, were wholly engaged the following Morning in giving Audiences. In the Evening their Majesties, with the Princess Charlotte of Lorrain, and the principal Nobility, assisted at the Ceremony of the Bethrothing of the young Countess de Schlick with the Baron de Hagen. The Hereditary Prince of Modena is expected here in the Course of next Week, and every Thing is ready for his Reception. It is said that there will soon be several Military Promotions. The Count d'Apremont de Linden, who is appointed Commander in Chief of the Imperial Troops in Lombardy, is preparing to set out for Milan. The Baron de Penckler, Minister from this Court to the Ottoman Porte, has desired and obtain'd his Letters of Revocation, but he is to continue at Constantinople till the Arrival there of M. de Swackheim who is appointed his Successor. M. Serbelloni, who has resided here for several Years with the Character of Apostolick Nuncio, being to be included in the next Promotion of Cardinals, is preparing to set out for Rome. Great Preparations are making at Schonbrun to celebrate there, next Thursday, the Feast of St. Francis, being the Emperor's Name Day. The Count de Coloredo, Vice-Chancellor of the Empire, is expected to arrive here this Day from Bohemia.

repair to Ratisbon, there to reside as his most Christian Majesty's Minister. The Queen of Denmark has felt some Symptoms of her approaching Labour, which is now daily to be expected, the Term of her Majesty's Reckoning being expired.

Copenhagen, Oct. 6. Prince Ferdinand of Wolfenbuttle is arrived here to visit the Queen his Sister, and proposes to stay here the whole Month of November. His Highness lodges in the Palace, and has dined and hunted with the King, and is treated with great Kindness and Regard.

Genoa, Oct. 1. By the last Letters from Bastia, there is Advice of the Arrival there of four Deputies, on Behalf of the Malecontents, who were politely received by M. Grimaldi, the Republic's Commissary General assuring him of the great Desire the People of the Island had to return to their Obedience under the Republic: They likewise presented to M. Grimaldi a List of the Capitulations they demand, (which are the same as those they gave to M. de Cursay) and he has transmitted them to this Republic. M. Grimaldi was fully resolved to have quitted his Command, and a large Fleet was at Bastia to bring him back, but the Deputies waiting on him unexpectedly, he staid for an Answer from the Republic to the Demands made by the Deputies; and it is said that the Republic have desired him to remain there a while longer; but this will depend upon their Answer, which perhaps may be favourable for the Malecontents. The Republic continue to augment their Troops by new Levies, in which they are successful, and are greatly facilitated by the Desertion from the Garrisons of Tortona, Alexandria, &c. who are immediately enlisted by the Republic's Officers, and sent either to Corsica, or to the Garrisons of Porto Specia. Last Night General Pallavicini arrived at the Marquis Durazzo's House at Polcevera, escorted by a Body of Hussars, where his Nuptials are to be celebrated.

Milan, Oct. 1. They continue here to make great Preparations for the Reception of the Duke of Modena, who is expected for certain the End of this Month, to come and take the Character of Governor General of Austrian Lombardy.

Vienna, Oct. 3. The Prince of Modena arrived here on Sunday Evening; but Monday being one of the Anniversaries of the late Emperor Charles XVII. on which the Empress Queen sees no Company, his Highness did not see their Imperial Majesties till Yesterday in the Morning, when he had his Audiences of the Emperor and Empress, in the same Manner as the Ambassadors of crowned Heads; and after they were over, and his Visits to all the Royal Family, he had the Honour to dine with their Imperial Majesties without Ceremony, and in the Way that Persons of Distinction, as well Strangers as those of the Country, are daily admitted. In the Afternoon his Highness made Visits to the two Chancellors, Counts Colerado and Kaunitz.

Vienna, Oct. 6. M. de Callenback, Privy-Counsellor of the Prince Archbishop of Passau, having been nominated by the Empress's Council in the Department of Foreign Affairs, he has this Day begun to perform the Functions of his Charge.

Leipsick, Oct. 9. The Anniversary of the Birth of the King, who the Day before Yesterday entered into the 58th Year of his Age, was celebrated with great Magnificence at Hubertzbourg, whither their Majesties, accompanied by the Princes Xavier and Charles, went on Saturday Night, and from whence they Yesterday returned to this Place, in perfect Health.

This being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, there was a very numerous and splendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment his Majesty. The Guns in St. James's Park, and at the Tower, were fired, and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other publick Demonstrations of Joy upon that Occasion.
