

her Royal Highness in her Passage through them. She is expected at Genoa the 19th, and will stay there only two or three Days. Last Sunday the Neapolitan Ambassador had his Audience of Leave, and the usual Present of his Sardinian Majesty's Picture. The Affairs of Corsica are in a more embroiled Situation than ever. The Malecontents begin to destroy each other; Gafforio, the Chief of the Rebels, having been assassinated by his own People. The Baron Blonay set out Yesterday on his Embassy to Madrid.

Copenhagen, Oct. 19. The King has raised M. de Thurah to the Rank of Major General; and M. de Kroge, Colonel of the Regiment of Wester-Lehn, is appointed Governor of the Fortress of Frederichstadt in Norway, in the Room of Lieutenant General Reichau, deceased. Baron Gyldencrone, Counsellor of Conferences, and Knight of the Order of Dannebrog, died here on Saturday last, in the 50th Year of his Age. Lieutenant Colonel Longueville, who was some Time since arrested here, on his Return from Morocco, is set at Liberty.

Prague, Oct. 19. Orders having been given, by her Imperial Majesty, for compleating the several Regiments quartered in the different Circles of this Kingdom, they have accordingly begun to raise Recruits for that Purpose.

Vienna, Oct. 20. This Court has entered into a Convention with that of Bavaria, with Relation to the Standard of the Money in their respective Dominions. The Viscount d'Aubeterre, Minister from France, arrived here the Night before last. On Monday last, being the Feast of St^a. Theresa, whose Name the Empress bears, the same was celebrated at Schonbrun with the usual Solemnity. In the Morning their Imperial Majesties received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Ministers on that Occasion. At Noon their Imperial Majesties, the Archdukes and Archdutchesses, with the Princess Charlotte of Lorraine, and the Pope's Nuncio, assisted at High Mass, and Te Deum, in the Royal Chapel; after which they dined in Publick; and at Night they honoured a new Italian Opera with their Presence. Her Imperial Majesty hath at length nominated the Persons for the four Professorships of Law, the same Time since declared should be added to the University of this City, for the Support of whom she has settled an annual Income, viz. Dr. Rieger, to be Professor of Common Law. Dr. Tzon to be first, and M. Rettenhausen, to be second Professor of Civil Law; and an Italian, whose Name is not as yet publickly known, to be Professor of Canon Law. We are informed by our last Letters from Constantinople, that one of the Under-Dragomans of the Porte, had been lately strangled there, for having communicated the Contents of a Paper, delivered by a certain Foreign Envoy to the Grand Vizier, relating, as 'tis said, to the Affairs in the North, to the Minister of another Foreign Power.

Cobourg, Oct. 20. Yesterday Morning the Spouse of our Hereditary Prince was safely delivered of a Princess, which joyful News was immediately sent by Express to the Duke and Dutchess our Sovereigns at Rodah, who came here in the Afternoon to assist at the Baptism, which was performed last Night in the Chapel of the Court, and the young Princess named Caroline-Henriette-Amelie.

Dresden, Oct. 21. This Court has agreed to a Cartel, for the reciprocal Exchange of Deserters, with the Court of Brandebourg-Culmbach, the Contents whereof are ordered to be published at the Head of every Regiment of the Troops of this Electorate. On Monday last a Fire broke out at Oederan, a small Town near the Misnean Mountains, which burnt with such Violence, that upwards of sixty Houses were reduced to Ashes, and five or six Persons perished in the Flames.

Brill, Oct. 30. Her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, having been pleased to recommend M. Arnould Gallas, to be first Burgomaster of this Town, in the Room of the late M. Molewater, he was accordingly appointed Yesterday, by our Regency, to fill up that important Post.

Hague, Nov. 1. Yesterday the States of Holland and Westfrizeland opened their Assembly, and to Day continued their Deliberations. This Morning an Advertisement was stuck up, in the usual publick Places, offering a Reward of One Hundred Ducatoons for discovering the Author or Authors of the Tumult that happened here on the 27th past at Night, when great Disorders were committed, and many of the Windows broke in several of our Streets.

Admiralty Office, November 3, 1753.

Pursuant to an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, This is to give Notice to the Persons interested or concerned therein, That a Dogger called the St. Johannes, of about 80 Tuns Burthen, belonging to Mr. Lars Kamp, Merchant, of Marstrand in Sweden, whereof Anders Pehrson Christman was Master, laden with Brandy, Wine, and other Goods at Cette, consigned to Mr. Piere Samuel Bagge and Mr. Carl Habiche, Merchants at Gottenburgh, and the said Mr. Kamp at Marstrand, being forced by Strefs of Weather into Bristol Channel, came to an Anchor at the Entrance of the Port of Padstow about Ten o'Clock in the Morning of