Moscow, October 28.

BARON Pretlack, Ambassador from the Court of Vienna, being recovered of his late Indisposition, had last Week his Audiences of Leave of the Empress, and the Great Duke and Great Dutchess, and is since set out on his Return to Vienna. The Day after his Departure, Count Esterhazy, who succeeds him in that Embassy, was admitted to his first publick Audience of her Imperial Majesty, and delivered his Credential Letters.

Madrid, Nov. 9. Their Majesties continue at the Escorial. Orders are sent to the different Ports of this Kingdom, to hasten the Equipping the several Men of War and Frigats which are getting ready for the Sea, Part of which are to sail for the West Indies, and the rest are to cruize in the Mediterranean, to protect our Commerce from the Insults of the Corsairs of Barbary.

Rome, Nov. 10. By a Grant from the Pope, the Town of Matelica is for the future to be deemed a City, and is to enjoy the same Privileges with the other Cities of the Ecclesiastical State. Cardinal Delci is about to rebuild the Cathedral Church of Castelnovo, for which Purpose he has obtained the Pope's Leave to borrow 10,000 Scudis of the Apostolick Chamber; which Sum is to be repaid in ten Years out of the Revenues arising from that Bishoprick. We are assured that a private Consistory will be held on the 19th Instant at the Quirinal, in which the Pope intends to confer the Archbishoprick of Bologna on M. Malvezzi, his Maitre de Chambre, who is also to be comprehended in the Promotion of Cardinals which is to be made on the 26th Instant. The Chevalier Capello, the new Venetian Ambassador, will make a most magnificent publick Entry into this City as soon as his Liveries and Equipage can be got ready, which are extremely grand. Notwithstanding the Pains taken by the Pope to reconcile the Differences between the Court of Naples and the Grand Master of Malta, those Disputes run so high at present, that we doubt they will be attended with fatal Consequences. The Pope has ordered the youngest Son of the Duke d'Altemps to be confined in the Castle of St. Angelo, in order to prevent his marrying a Person of mean Extraction.

Stockholm, Nov. 13. A few Days ago the King made a Promotion of Land and Sea Officers, when the Baron de Ungern-Sternberg was raised to the Rank of Field Marshal. Vice-Admiral Ruth was appointed Admiral, and Count Sparre Vice-Admiral. His Majesty at the same Time disposed of some civil Employments, amongst which M. de Klingsporr was appointed Assessor of the Tribunal of Jonkoping. M. de Rhodt, whom the Baron de Malzhan is come to relieve in the Post of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia, will have his Audiences of Leave of their Majesties and the Royal Family the latter End of this Week, or the Beginning of next, after which he is to set out for Berlin.

Copenhagen, Nov. 16. The King has appointed M. de Klingenberg to be one of the Chamberlains of his Majesty's Household. Last Wednesday the Queen appeared in Publick for the first Time since her lying-in, on which Occasion the Court was extremely numerous and very brilliant. On the 24th Instant two new Men of War are to be launched at the New Holm; and Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick will set out a few Days after for Berlin; but before his Departure it is said his Majesty will confer on him the Order of the Elephant.

Prague, Nov. 16. The Empress-Queen has caused an Ordopnance to be published, prohibiting, on Pain of Fine and Imprisonment, all Artificers, and Students of Universities in this Kingdom, from wearing of Swords for the Future.

Vienna, Nov. 17. On Saturday Morning last an extraordinary Council was held at Schonbrun, upon some Advices received from London, for which Court a Courier is since dispatched. On Tuesday a grand Conference was held at the Palace, at the breaking up of which an Express was sent to Moscow, with Dispatches, as 'tis said, relating to a new Subsidy Treaty proposed to this Court and that of Russia, for constantly keeping, in Conjunction, an Army of 120,000 Men, always ready to act as Occasion may require.
