

to the Treaty for an Accommodation between the Republick and them, until they deliver up the Murderers into their Hands. As yet the Malecontents have not made Choice of a Person to succeed Gafforio in the chief Command. Doctor Guilliani, who was General of the Province of Balagna, is under Arrest in the Place called Corti, situated in the Middle of the Island. The Rebels are at Discord, and in great Confusion amongst themselves, massacring each other, notwithstanding their Magistrates endeavour to restrain them, by destroying the Houses and Effects of those who are guilty of those Excesses. It is said the Republick has found Means to pacify the People who were in Arms against the Inhabitants of La Colle, by which Means those Territories are in perfect Tranquillity. General Pallavicini will leave this City in a few Days, and set out for Vienna: It is said that the Emperor has lately honoured him with the Order of the Golden Fleece, and that he is to be Governor of the Castle of Milan. The Republick continue to list what Deserters come in from Lombardy.

Madrid, Dec. 8. Tuesday, the 4th, of this Month, being her Catholick Majesty's Birth-Day, the same was celebrated with the usual Magnificence. In the Morning their Majesties received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and Persons of Distinction; after which the Marquis de la Ensenada, Secretary of State, gave a grand Entertainment, at which were present above fifty Persons; and at Night the new Opera of Semiramis was performed in the Theatre at the Buen Retiro. The same Day the Marquis de Villafranca, who has lately succeeded his Father, in Title and Estate, was covered Grandee of Spain of the first Class. By Letters from Cadiz of the 20th past, we are informed, that the Ships, which were to sail in a few Days for the West-Indies, would be convoyed by a Squadron of Men of War, consisting of three new Frigates, the Africa, the America, and the Revenge, all three launched this Year from the King's Yard at the Caraccas.

Lisbon, Dec. 10. Colonel Hopson arrived here some Days ago from his Government of Nova Scotia, and intends to sail for England, on Board his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Forrington, in less than a Fortnight.

General Post-Office,

November 7th 1753.

Whereas a second anonymous Letter has been sent to the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Leicester, His Majesty's Post-Master-General, in the following Terms:

"My Lord,
 "I don't find that you have ordered Mr. Stockdale to be taken down, but you give yourself the Trouble to advertise so much Reward, but you will find yourself quite mistaken, for we are true Englishmen, we are not French Men, nor Irish Men, so that we shall never discover one another, not for One Thousand, nor much more your One Hundred Pounds; so then if

"Mr. Stockdale is not taken down in a Week's Time, we will serve you as we said in our last Letter.

"Tuesday, October the 30th. So, no more.

P. S. "You need not give yourself any more Trouble of advertising, for we shall stand true to one another, and are resolute to have him down, let what will happen."

This is to offer a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds to any who shall or may make Discovery of the Party or Parties concerned in Writing or Sending the above said Letter, so that he, she or they, be convicted thereof, together with his Majesty's most Gracious Pardon for any Accomplice, who shall make Discovery of the same.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
 Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
