Navy-Office, April 13, 1754.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 30th of June 1753, to the 31st of December following, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf;

These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Monday the 29th Instant, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, and continued the following Day, beginning at the same Hour; That all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Vitrualling Office, April 24, 1754.

The Commissioners for Vitrualling his Majesty's Navy, do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 22d of May next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they shall be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to undertake to furnish Brins Salt, made after the late Mr. Thomas Lowndes's new invented Method.

The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Vitrualling Office, London, or by applying to the Collector of his Majesty's Customs at Laverpoole, or the Collector of the Salt Duties at Middlewich, in Cheshire.

And on the same Day, the said Commissioners will be ready to treat for French, or other Bay Salt, for the Service of his Majesty's Navy.

Office of Ordnance, April 23, 1754.

Whereas an Out-House belonging to Mr. Thomas Searle, at Stangate, near Westminster-Bridge Foot, and in the Occupation of the Right Honourable and Honourable the Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance, was in the Night between the 20th and 21st Instant broke open, and eight Brass Chambers, the Property of his Majesty, stolen thereout and carried off; two of which Chambers were on Monday the 22d Instant, found buried under a Heap of Dung in a Gardener's Ground by the Road Side near the said Bridge: This is therefore to give Notice, that whoever will make Discovery of the Person or Persons concerned in the said Robbery, and give Information thereof to Thomas Stanford, Esq; Solicitor to the Office of Ordnance, at his House in Grange-Court, Carey Street, near Lincoln's Inn, or to Mr. William Bogdani, at the Office of Ordnance in the Tower of London, so that such Person or Persons be lawfully convicted thereof, shall receive a Reward of Twenty Pounds, to be paid on Conviction, by the Treasurer and Paymaster of the said Office.

By Order of the Board,
W. Bogdani,

General Post Office, March 2, 1754.

Whereas the Post Boy, bringing the Kent Mail to this Office, upon Thursday the 28th of February last, was, between the Hours of Eight and Nine of the Clock in the Evening, attacked and robbed, at a Place called Snipps Hill, about a Mile beyond Sittingborn by three Footpads, one of whom fired a Pistol, seized the Horse which carried the Mail, beat the said Post Boy cruelly, and cut the Mail from the Horse and carried it away.

Two of the Persons who committed this Robbery are described as short Men, dressed like Sailors; and the other a tall Man in a red Coat.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, the Persons, or any of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby any one, or more of the Persons, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of any one, or more, of the said Robbers, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

N. B. This Mail was afterwards found and brought safe to the Office.

General Post-Office, April 13, 1754.

Publick Notice is hereby given, That a Mail for Corunna, including the Letters to Oporto, will, for the Future, be made up, and forwarded, from this Office, every Tuesday; and that all such Letters, for Oporto, as are intended to pass by the Way of Lisbon, must be marked accordingly, otherwise they will, in Course, be forwarded by the Corunna Mail.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
