Algiers, April 24.

ON Thursday last three Fathers of the Order of Mercy arrived here from Portugal on board a Swedish Ship, having brought with them a Letter and several rich Presents from his Portuguese Majesty. The next Day they had a private Audience of the Dey, and having delivered their Letter and Presents, and agreed for the Redemption of 226 Captives, among whom were five Women, they all sailed the Day following for Lisbon.

Naples, April 30. The King has consented to a Suspension of Hostilities between his Majesty's Ships and those of Malta, but the Prohibition of trading with that State is still to continue, and fresh Orders are given to the Commanders of our Gallies to seize all Neapolitan or Sicilian Vessels that shall attempt to supply the Maltese with Provisions, as many of them have done notwithstanding the Prohibition. They go on very successfully in raising Recruits for filling up the old Regiments, and for completing the new ones. The Fortifications on the Frontiers of this Kingdom are ordered to be repaired with great Diligence; and the Magazines of those Places are ordered to be forthwith filled with all Sorts of Ammunition and Provisions.

Barcelona, April 30. The Fleet that has been for some Time equipping in this Port, is now ready to put to Sea; it is extraordinary well manned, and they have put a great Quantity of Ammunition and Provisions on board; but we are yet Ignorant as to its Destination.

Lisbon, May 6. On the 23d of last Month the Court removed from hence to Salvaterra for the Summer. A few Days ago a Fire broke out in this City, which burnt with great Violence; by which Accident about thirty Houses were reduced to Ashes in a few Hours. The Chevalier de Guevara has had his first Audiences of their most Faithful Majesties and the Royal Family, in Quality of Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of the Two Sicilies, and has since notified his Arrival in Form to all the Foreign Ministers residing at this Court.

Rome, May 11. The Pope has declared his Intention of going, on the 27th Instant, to Castel Gandolfo, in order to spend best Part of the Summer. M. Salviati is preparing to set out for Malta, with some new Propositions from the Pope for accommodating the Disputes between the King of the Two Sicilies and the Knights of that Order.

Prague, May 11. The Camp that is to be formed this Summer in the Neighbourhood of Kolin, for which they are already making the necessary Preparations, is to consist of the following Regiments, viz, those of Foot of Francis of Lorraine, Henry and Leopold Daun, Saxe Hildbourghausen, Old and Young Wolfembuttel, Harsch, Baden Dourlach, that of the Teutonic Order, and those of Nicholas and Joseph Esterhazy, the nine first of four Battalions each, and the two others of three; the Regiment of Cuirassiers of Hohenembs, and those of Dragoons of Archduke Joseph, and of Batschiany. The Regiment of Wallis being the only one that is to remain here in Garrison.

Warsaw, May 13. A Fire broke out in this City in the Night between the 9th and 10th Instant, which burnt down fifteen Houses. And we have since received an Account, that the Village of Przedbortz, in the Neighbourhood of Petrikau, is almost reduced to Ashes; only five or six Houses remaining unconsumed.

Stockholm, May 14. The King assists very regularly at the Deliberations of the Senate. We are informed, that in the Night between the 2d and 3d Instant, a Fire broke out at Hedemora, a Town in the Province of Dalecarlia, which in a short Time reduced almost all that Town to Ashes; the principal Church, the Hospital, and about fifty Houses, being all that remain.

Vienna, May 15. On Monday last, being the Empress's Birth-Day, their Imperial Majesties received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction: But no Promotion, either Civil or Military, was made on that Occasion.

Aranjuez, May 20. His Excellency Lieutenant General Wall, late Ambassador at the Court of London, arrived here on the 17th Instant, and met with a most gracious Reception from their Catholick Majesties, who were pleased, next Day, to appoint him Secretary of State for
