Kensington, June 25.

SATURDAY last, being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Succession to the Throne; at Noon the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; and at Night there were Bonfires and other Illuminations of Joy throughout London and Westminster: And on Sunday His Majesty received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and others Persons of Distinction, upon that Occasion.

Carlton House, June 25.

On Sunday last the Chevalier d'Abreu, charged with the Affairs of the King of Spain, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and of her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales; to both which he was introduced by Charles Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Lisbon, May 14. The Lordship of Ilha-Grande-de-Joanne, situate at the Mouth of the River Amazonas, is annexed to the Domains of the Crown, the King having given Don Louis de Macedo, in exchange for it, the Lordship of the Town of Misquitella, in the Province of Beyra, with the Title of Viscount. Last Week the Chevalier de Guevara, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies, had divers Conferences with the Ministry, on Affairs of Importance.

Moscow May 25. Yesterday her Imperial Majesty set out from hence for Petersbourg; the Great Duke and Great Dutchess having taken the same Route three Days before.

Aranjuez, June 3. Thursday the 30th of last Month being the King's Name-Day, the same was celebrated with the usual Magnificence. In the Morning their Majesties received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction: After which the Marquis de Ensenada, Secretary of State, gave an elegant Dinner at his House; and at Night a new Serenata was performed in the Theatre at the Palace. The Duke of Huescar, who has been much indisposed for this Week past, is now perfectly recovered. By Letters from Cadiz we are informed, that on the 17th past, arrived in that Bay, from Vera Cruz, the Nostra Senora del Carmen, with 280,000 Dollars, and a large Quantity of Cochineal, Indigo, and other valuable Effects, of which, it is said, the greatest Part is damaged.

Copenhagen, June 8. The King is expected back from Holstein towards the End of this Month. M. Eigtwed, Colonel of a Regiment of Foot, Architect to the Court, and one of the Directors of the Royal Academy of Painting and Sculpture in this City, died here Yesterday.

Dresden, June 10. The Equipage of the Princes Xavier and Charles, who are to accompany his Majesty into Poland, is already sent to Warsaw. Publick Prayers are put up, in all the Churches of this City, by the King's express Order, for the happy Delivery of the Queen of the Two Sicilies, who is near her Time.

Sleswick, June 10. The Duke of Brunswick Wolfembuttel, and the Hereditary Prince his Son, arrived here on Friday last, and were received with great Marks of Distinction by his Danish Majesty. The next Day the King accompanied them to the Camp, attended by great Numbers of Persons of Quality and Distinction, and saw the Troops go through their Evolutions and Fireings; with whose Behaviour and Appearance, they expressed great Satisfaction. Notwithstanding the Concourse of People from all Parts, who come daily to see the Camp, such wise Precautions are taken to prevent Impositions, that the Price of Provisions, in all the Neighbouring Towns and Villages, is very reasonable. Mess. Faber and Dresky, Counsellors of the Regency of Hambourg, who came here in Quality of Deputies from that City, to compliment the King upon his Arrival in these Parts, were Yesterday introduced to his Majesty, and met with a gracious Reception; and having acquitted themselves of the Commission with which they were charged, they were afterwards admitted to his Majesty's Table; and on Friday the Deputies from the City of Lubeck had also
