

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 29, to Tuesday July 2, 1754.

Kensington, June 27.

THIS Day Count Haflang had a private Audience of His Majesty, to present his Credential Letter as Minister Plenipotentiary from the Elector Palatine; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Charles Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

As likewise the Chevalier d'Abreu, charged with the Affairs of the King of Spain, had a private Audience of Her Royal Highness the Princess Amelia: To which he was introduced by Charles Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Kensington, June 30.

This Day Count Haflang, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Elector Palatine, had a private Audience of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; and afterwards of Her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales; at Carlton House: To both which he was introduced by Charles Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

As likewise the Chevalier d'Abreu, charged with the Affairs of the King of Spain, had a private Audience of His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland: To which he was introduced by Charles Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Dublin, June 25.

Last Saturday, being the Anniversary of His Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, the Great Guns were fired at His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon their Excellencies the Lord Justices met at the Castle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

[Price Two-Pence.]

Lisbon, May 21. On the 13th Instant an Advice Boat, commanded by Capt. Bayam, arrived in our Road from the Bay of All Saints. She is richly laden, and was only ten Weeks in her Passage. The two Fathers of the Redemption of Slaves, who sailed from hence about four Months ago in a Swedish Ship for Algiers, returned safe into this Port last Saturday, with 226 Captives, whom they released from Slavery.

Rome, June 4. The Pope has granted to the Inhabitants of Nocera and Gualdo, an Exemption from all Taxes whatsoever for the Space of ten Years, in Consideration of the great Losses and Damages they have sustained by Earthquakes.

Stockholm, June 12. They write from Carlscroon, that, in pursuance of an Order received from Court, several Vessels were sailed from thence on a Cruize of five or six Weeks in the Baltick, in order to exercise the Seamen. Prince Gustavus, who was last Week confined to his Apartment by a slight Fever, is now perfectly recovered. The King intends to set out for Scania the Beginning of next Month, in order to review the Troops quartered in that Province. We are informed by Letters from Gottenbourg, that our East-India Company's Ship the Esperance, commanded by Capt. Treutiger, is safely arrived there from Canton, with a very valuable Cargo on board.

Sleswick, June 13. His Danish Majesty goes constantly every Day to the Camp, to see the Troops go through their Exercise; and Yesterday he dined in the Tent of the Margrave of Culmbach, with the Duke of Brunswick Wolfembuttel, and several other Persons of Distinction. His Majesty, who has declared his Intention of setting out on his Return to Copenhagen the 20th Instant, will be accompanied by the Duke of Saxe Hildbourghausen his Brother in Law.

Vienna, June 15. The Camp intended to be formed this Summer in Bohemia, under the Command of Field Marshal Brown, is to consist of 42 Battallions, 21 Squadrons of Cavalry, 10000 Grenadiers, and 22 Companies of

