Whitehall, August 3, 1754.

Whereas the Store Houses, in which His Majesty's Ordnance and Stores are lodged at Lambeth, were broke open in the Night between the 20th and 21st of April last, and Eight Brass Chambers, the Property of His Majesty, were stolen thereout: And whereas Daniel Lewis, being taken up for the same, and examined upon Oath, before one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, did, on such his Examination, confess, that he, together with John Hodges, now a Prisoner in His Majesty's Prison of Newgate, and by the Contrivance and Assistance of John Smith, now likewise in Custody in the said Prison, as Aider and Abettor, were the Persons who committed the said Burglary and Robbery: And whereas the said Daniel Lewis has since made his Escape out of the Gatehouse, where he was then confined; His Majesty does, hereby, promise His most gracious, general and free Pardon to the said Daniel Lewis, upon Condition that he do, on or before the 20th Day of this Month of August, surrender himself to any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Surry, and make a full and compleat Discovery of all Felonies, which he has been concern'd in, or has had any Knowledge of.

HOLDERNESSE.

General Post Office, March 2, 1754.

Whereas the Post Boy, bringing the Kent Mail to this Office, upon Thursday the 28th of February last, was, between the Hours of Eight and Nine of the Clock in the Evening, attacked and robbed, at a Place called Snipps Hill, about a Mile beyond Sittingborn by three Footpads, one of whom fired a Pistol, seized the Horse which carried the Mail, beat the said Post Boy cruelly, and cut the Mail from the Horse and carried it away.

Two of the Persons who committed this Robbery are described as short Men, dressed like Sailors, and the other a tall Man in a red Coat.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend, and convict, the Persons, or any of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby any one, or more of the Persons, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of any one, or more, of the said Robbers, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

N. B. This Mail was afterwards found and brought safe to the Office.
