

Ancona, July 12. A few Days ago two Ships anchored in this Port, the one from Smyrna, and the other from Salonica; but as several of their Crew had died as it were suddenly on their Voyage, there was great Reason to suspect they had some pestilential Distemper on Board, they were therefore forbid to unload, and are ordered to perform a strict Quarantine.

Turin, July 15. We are informed by our last Advices from Sardinia, that a Tunesian Corsair, of 18 Guns, was drove on the Rocks near Cagliari, the Beginning of this Month, and was dashed to Pieces, only five or six of the Crew having saved themselves in their Chaloupe.

Warsaw, July 17. The Court is very brilliant, occasioned by the Number of Nobility and Gentry who are continually coming here to pay their Duty to his Majesty. 'Tis said a Scheme for augmenting the Army of this Kingdom, and another for the better Regulation of the Revenues of the Crown, will be laid before the next Diet.

Stockholm, July 18. By our last Advices from Abo, the Commissaries of this Court, and those of Russia, have not as yet been able to adjust the Differences between the two Courts, in Relation to the settling of their respective Limits in Finland. The Squadron that sailed lately from Cronstadt, in order to exercise the Sailors in the Baltick, is shortly expected to return into Port, in order to be unrigged.

Bareith, July 18. The Margravine is perfectly recovered of her late dangerous Illness, and has begun to appear again in Publick; and Dr. Cothenius, his Prussian Majesty's first Physician, who came here by the King his Master's express Orders, to attend her during her Illness, is set out on his Return to Berlin. The Hereditary Prince of Anspach, who has been here for some Weeks, set out on Tuesday last for the Court of the Margrave his Father.

Vienna, July 19. Yesterday their Imperial Majesties, accompanied by the Princess Charlotte of Lorrain, set out for Kitzee, a Seat belonging to Prince Esterhasi, from whence they will proceed to Presbourg. Before their Departure, her Imperial Majesty was pleased to raise Major General Baron Terzi to the Rank of Lieutenant Field Marshal. The Empress has ordered a Fund to be appropriated for the Relief of all those who shall suffer great Losses by Fire or Storms, in which the Jews, as well as Christians, are to have the Benefit. Count Keyserling, the Russian Ambassador at this Court, having received Orders to claim all the Russian Soldiers in this Service, they are accordingly to be delivered to him, in order to their being sent to their own Country.

Berlin, July 23. The King has conferred on Major General Amstel, the Government of the Town and Castle of Stettin in Pomerania. They write from Landsberg, upon the River Warse, that a prodigious Flight of Locusts have lately settled in that Neighbourhood, and greatly damaged the Fruits of the Earth.

Hambourg, July 24. The Prince of Saxe Gotha, and the Princess his Spouse, who have been here for some Weeks past, are set out for Eutin, in order to spend some Time with the Prince, Bishop of Lubeck. M. Hiss, an eminent Banker in this City, has received Bills of Exchange from Paris for a considerable Sum, which he has Orders to remit to Copenhagen, as Part of the Subsidy paid by his most Christian Majesty to the Crown of Denmark, by Virtue of a Treaty subsisting between the two Courts.

Paris, July 30. In Consequence of the Return of the Parliament, the Royal Chamber is ordered to be suppressed, and the necessary Letters Patent are preparing for that Purpose, but all their Decrees are to remain irrevocable. The King has declared his Intention of returning from Compeigne to Versailles on the 5th or 6th of next Month. The Report of the Princess of Conde's being with Child, is confirmed.

Hague, July 30. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland separated on Saturday last. They write from Leyden, that on Thursday last the Magistrates of that City, whom her Royal Highness the Princess Governante had lately nominated for the Year ensuing, were sworn into their respective Offices.

Whitehall, August 3, 1754.

Whereas the Store Houses, in which His Majesty's Ordnance and Stores are lodged at Lambeth, were broke open in the Night between the 20th and 21st of April last, and Eight Brass Chambers, the Property of His Majesty, were stolen thereout: And whereas David Lewis, being taken up for the same, and examined upon Oath, before one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, did, on such his Examination, confess, that he, together with John Hodges, now a Prisoner in His Majesty's Prison of Newgate, and by the Contrivance and Assistance of John Smith, now likewise in Custody in the said Prison, as Aider and Abettor, were the Persons who committed the said Burglary and Robbery: And whereas the said Daniel Lewis has since made his Escape out of the Gatehouse, where he was then confined; His Majesty does, hereby, promise His most gracious, general and free Pardon to the said Daniel Lewis, upon Condition that he do, on or before the 20th Day of this Month of August, surrender himself to any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Surry, and make a full and compleat Discovery of all Felonies, which he has been concern'd in, or has had any Knowledge of.

HOLDERNESSE.

General Post Office, March 2, 1754.

Whereas the Post Boy, bringing the Kent Mail to this Office, upon Thursday the 28th of February last, was, between the Hours of Eight and Nine of the Clock in the Evening, attacked and robbed, at a Place called Snipp's Hill, about a Mile beyond Sittingborn by three Footpads, one of whom fired a Pistol, seized the Horse which carried the Mail, beat the said Post Boy cruelly, and cut the Mail from the Horse and carried it away.

Two of the Persons who committed this Robbery are described as short Men, dressed like Sailors; and the other a tall Man in a red Coat.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, the Persons, or any of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby any one, or more of the Persons, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of any one, or more of the said Robbers, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,

Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

N. B. This Mail was afterwards found and brought safe to the Office.
