

Account of his great Age and Infirmities, has obtained his Letters of Revocation.

Hildesheim, July 27. Yesterday Morning a dreadful Fire broke out in the Village of Emmerke, situated about a League from this Place; and the Wind being high, the Flames communicated themselves from House to House with so much Rapidity, that, in the Space of four Hours, the whole Village, which was very considerable, was reduced to Ashes, except the Church and fifteen Houses. It is impossible to express the Calamity to which the greatest Part of the Inhabitants are reduced by this deplorable Accident.

Bonn, August 4. The Elector our Sovereign, who went the Day before Yesterday from Poppelstorff to Augustsburg, set out from thence Yesterday Morning for Udingen, where his Serene Highness intends to stay five or six Days, in order to take the Diversion of Hunting the Wild Boar.

Hague, August 8. M. Calkoen, Minister Plenipotentiary from this Republick to the King of Poland Elector of Saxony, is arrived here from Dresden, and has had the Honour to be introduced to their Royal and Serene Highnesses, by whom he was very graciously received. He has since been in Conference with the President of the Assembly of the States General, and several other Members of the Government.

General Post Office, March 2, 1754.

Whereas the Post Boy, bringing the Kent Mail to this Office, upon Thursday the 28th of February last, was, between the Hours of Eight and Nine of the Clock in the Evening, attacked and robbed, at a Place called Snipps Hill, about a Mile beyond Sittingborn by three Footpads, one of whom fired a Pistol, seized the Horse which carried the Mail, beat the said Post Boy cruelly, and cut the Mail from the Horse and carried it away.

Two of the Persons who committed this Robbery are described as short Men, dressed like Sailors; and the other a tall Man in a red Coat.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, the Persons, or any of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby any one, or more of the Persons, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of any one, or more, of the said Robbers, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most-gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

N. B. This Mail was afterwards found and brought safe to the Office.

General Post-Office, April 13, 1754.

Publick Notice is hereby given, That a Mail for Corunna, including the Letters to Oporto, will, for the Future, be made up, and forwarded, from this Office, every Tuesday; and that all such Letters, for Oporto, as are intended to pass by the Way of Lisbon, must be marked accordingly, otherwise they will, in Course, be forwarded by the Corunna Mail.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
