Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That John Chamberlain, late of Inglisbam, in the County of Wilts, was, on Tuesday, the 2d of July last, in the Evening, most cruelly and inhumanly murdered, in his own Fields, and put into a Pond; and, that, there is Reason to believe, several Persons were concerned in the said Murder, tho' all the Endeavours, which have been hitherto used to discover and bring them to Justice, for the same, have been without Effect: His Majesty, for the more effectual discovering, and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder,) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices, in the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, I, William Chamberlain, of Cheapside, London, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Thirty Pounds, to any Person, or Persons, making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder,) to be paid, upon the Conviction of one, or more, of the Criminals, by me
William Chamberlain.

Whereas the Post Boy, bringing the Kent Mail to this Office, upon Thursday the 28th of February last, was, between the Hours of Eight and Nine of the Clock in the Evening, attacked and robbed, at a Place called Snipps Hill, about a Mile beyond Sittingborn by three Footpads, one of whom fired a Pistol, seized the Horse which carried the Mail, beat the said Post Boy cruelly, and cut the Mail from the Horse and carried it away.

Two of the Persons who committed this Robbery are described as short Men, dressed like Sailors; and the other a tall Man in a red Coat.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, the Persons, or any of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby any one, or more of the Persons, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of any one, or more, of the said Robbers, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.
