Lisbon, August 23.

THE Body of the late Queen, after lying in State for some Days in the Great Hall of the Palace, is interred in the Church belonging to the Convent of the barefooted Carmelites. The Fleet from Fernambuco, consisting of 12 Ships, is safe arrived at the Mouth of the Tagus with a very valuable Cargoe. We have received Advice, that our Men of War, commanded by Don Juan da Costa de Brito, being on a Cruize on the Coast of Algarves, fell in with two African Corsairs, off Aveyro, and attacked them with such Success, that they soon sunk one, and made themselves Masters of the other, which had 32 Pieces of Cannon, and 110 Men on board.

Petersbourg, Aug. 30. Her Imperial Majesty has ordered, that for the Future no Traveller shall be obliged to pay any Toll or Duty for passing either of the several Bridges from hence to Schlüsselberg, or those from Narva to Jambourg.

Warsaw, Sept. 7. By Letters received from the different Palatinates of this Kingdom we are informed, that the Dietines of Kalisch, Plocko, Troki, Minsko, Czernichow, Bracklaw, Pinsko, Lemberg, Przemiſlaw, Sanocker, and some others, have proved unsuccessful, having broke up without coming to any Choice of Deputies to the General Diet; and particularly at Brzeck and Lemberg, the Disputes ran so high, as to end in the Effusion of Blood. Yesterday three Highwaymen were executed here, for having robbed some Jew Merchants of 1200 Crowns on their Way from hence to Leipſick.

Turin, Sept. 7. Publick Prayers are put up in all the Churches of this City for the happy Delivery of the Dutchess of Savoy, who is now near her Time.

Toulon, Sept. 8. The Frigats the Topaz and Thetis, which made Part of the Squadron under the Command of M. de la Galiffonniere, that put to Sea some Months ago, returned into Port the 29th of last Month, and are now refitting. And the Frigats the Nymph and Hermione are likewise daily expected, in order to be laid up; which shews the Report of their being gone to the East Indies, to be without Foundation.

Stockholm, Sept. 9. We learn by Express, that the King and Queen arrived the 27th of last Month at Lunden, the Capital of Scania, and were received with great Demonstrations of Joy by the Inhabitants. In their Majesties Passage by Landscreon, they performed the Ceremony of laying the first Stone of a new magnificent Church that is going to be erected there.

Vienna, Sept. 11. The Archdukes Joseph and Charles, and the three eldest Archdutchesses, are to set out To-morrow Morning for Hollitsch, in order to meet their Imperial Majesties, who were expected there as Yesterday.

Breslau, Sept. 12. The King arrived here last Monday Morning, and was soon after complimented thereupon by a great Number of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction, several of whom were afterwards admitted to his Table. On Tuesday his Majesty reviewed the Regiment of Foot of Mutcephal; after which he dined in Publick with some Princes and several General Officers, and in the Evening performed the Ceremony of investing Lieutenant General Baron Lestewitz with the Ensigns of the Order of the Black Eagle.

Dresden, Sept. 17. The Hereditary Prince of Anspach, who stopt here five or six Days on his Return from Prague, set out last Monday Morning for the Court of the Margrave his Father. The Princess, Spouse to the Prince Royal, went on Friday last to Ubigau, to see the Princess Christine her Sister-in-Law, who is fallen ill there. They write from Warsaw, that the King has conferred the Title of Privy Counsellor of Conference on M. de Sacken, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from this Court to that of Sweden.

Emden, Sept. 17. The Directors of our Asiatick Company have received Advice, by the Way of Copenhagen, that their Ship the Prince of Prussia arrived at the Cape of Good Hope on the 19th of May last, on her Voyage to Canton in China.

Mons, Sept. 18. The States of Hainault, and our Magistrates, have sent Deputations to Brussels, to compliment the Princess Charlotte of
