

of Lorrain upon her Arrival. And as that Princess proposes to take up her Residence in this City, we are very busy in preparing for her Reception. We learn from the Camp at Emeries near Maubeuge, that Prince-Soubise, who Commands at that Place, gave last Sunday a most magnificent Entertainment on Occasion of the Birth of the Duke de Berry.

Berlin, Sept. 19. On Thursday last the King set out for Breslau. His Majesty took his Route by Glatz, where he proposed to stay two or three Days in examining the Fortifications of that Place, and in reviewing the Troops of the Garrison. We have received Advice that Count Jules de Schwerin, Lieutenant General of Horse, Knight of the Order of the Black Eagle, and Colonel of a Regiment of Dragoons, died on the 11th Instant at Luben in Silesia, in the 59th Year of his Age. On Thursday last we had a prodigious Storm of Thunder and Lightning, the latter whereof falling on the House of the Minister of Zieten, set the same on Fire, and reduced it to Ashes, with five or six others adjoining.

Versailles, Sept. 19. The King has appointed the Duke de Brissac to be Governor of Salces in Roussillon, in the Room of Count Coffe. His Majesty has likewise appointed the Marquis de Voyer to be Governor of the Castle of Vincennes, in the Room of the Marquis du Chatelet.

Brussels, Sept. 23. The Marquis de Bournonville and Sars, Member of the Council of State of the Empress Queen, General of Foot of her Armies, Stadtholder, Governor, and Captain General of the Dutchy of Limbourg, and other Countries beyond the Meuse, died in this City last Tuesday Morning, in an advanced Age.

Hague, Sept. 24. The States of this Province will open their Assembly To-morrow, for which Purpose most of the Members are already arrived. The Baron de Heekeren de Brantzenbourg, and M. vander Mieden, set out Yesterday for Groninguen, in order to execute a private Commission from their High Mightinesses to the States of that Province. We are informed by our last Dispatches from Soestdyk, that her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, with the young Prince Stadtholder, and the Princess his Sister, continue there in perfect Health.

Whitehall, September 21, 1754.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That John Chamberlain, late of Englisham, in the County of Wilts, was, on Tuesday, the 2d of July last, in the Evening, most cruelly and inhumanly murdered, in his own Fields, and put into a Pond; and, that, there is Reason to believe, several Persons were concerned in the said Murder, tho' all the Endeavours, which have been, hitherto, used to discover and bring them to Justice, for the same, have been without Effect: His Majesty, for the more effectual discovering, and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder,) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices, in the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERTESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, I, William Chamberlain, of Cheapside, London, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Thirty Pounds, to any Person, or Persons, making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder,) to be paid, upon the Conviction of one, or more, of the Criminals, by me

William Chamberlain.

General Post-Office, April 13, 1754.

Publick Notice is hereby given, That a Mail for Corunna, including the Letters to Oporto, will, for the Future, be made up, and forwarded, from this Office, every Tuesday; and that all such Letters, for Oporto, as are intended to pass by the Way of Lisbon, must be marked accordingly, otherwise they will, in Courts, be forwarded by the Corunna Mail.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,

Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
