Copenhagen, Oct. 5. The King has appointed Count Danneschiold to be Great Master of the Horse, in the Room of his late Father. The Queen continues to advance happily in her Pregnancy, and confines herself to her Apartment. We had prodigious Rains in this Country almost all last Month, but the Weather is now set in fine, and his Majesty takes again the Diversion of Hunting.

Berlin, Oct. 8. The King has lately made a numerous Promotion of Military Officers, when thirteen Lieutenant Colonels were raised to the Rank of Colonels, and nine Majors to that of Lieutenant Colonels. We have received an Account from Fidichow, a Town in Upper Pomerania, situate upon the River Oder, that a Fire broke out there in the Night between the 27th and 28th of last Month, which burnt with such Violence, that twelve Houses, besides Barns and Stables, were soon reduced to Ashes.

Fontainebleau, Oct. 10. The King, Queen, and Mesdames de France, arrived here on the 4th Instant, as did the Dauphin and his Princess on the 7th, so that the whole Court is at present here.

Paris, Oct. 11. The Court having been informed, that great Disorders have been committed for some Time past by a numerous Gang of Smuglers in Dauphine and Auvergne, have ordered several Detachments of Horse and Foot to march into those two Provinces, in order to put a Stop to the same.

Utrecht, Oct. 12. The Prince of Anhalt-Bernbourg, accompanied by Baron de Bornstedt, arrived here on the 5th Instant, and on the 10th set out for the Court of Hesse-Cassel. During his Highness's Stay here, he went to Soestdyk, to pay his Compliments to her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, and her Family, by whom he was received with great Marks of Distinction.

Amsterdam, Oct. 15. The Directors of the East India Company held a General Meeting last Saturday, when several considerable Employments, vacant at Batavia, were filled up. At the same Time M. Dekker was appointed Governor and Director of Malacca, and M. Biddom, Director at Bengal.

Hague, Oct. 15. The Court is expected here on Thursday next from Soestdyk. Her Royal Highness proposes to take the Route by Leyden, in order to view what is most remarkable in that City. The States of Guelderland, who have been assembled for some Days past at Arnheim, are to separate next Saturday.

Admiralty Office, October 21, 1754.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His present Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, That Information has been sent to this Office, that a Ship called the Margaret of Dublin, whereof Morgan M'Donnell was Master and Owner, Burthen 140 Tuns, bound from Dublin to Cork, in order to take in a Freight of Beef and Butter for Bourdeaux, put into the Port of Milford on the 9th Instant in a violent Storm, and the next Day about Ten o'Clock in the Morning she parted her Cable; the Crew, who all betook to the Boat, perished. The said Ship went ashore under some Cliffs, where she was cut and tore to Pieces by the People of the Country, notwithstanding the utmost Endeavours of Mr. Kymer, Justice of the Peace, and Mr. Coytmore, Surveyor of the Customs of St. Davids, to prevent it. One Main-sail, Value about Six Pounds, one Eight Inch Cable of about the same Value, cut in many Places almost through with Hatchets, a small Stream Anchor Value about 15 s. and one of the Ship's Boats somewhat damaged, and some Trifles, as Shrouds, Ropes, &c. were the only Things that could be saved and secured, and even that was done at very great Labour and Expence.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Dwelling-house of William Marshall, of Leeds, in the County of York, Merchant, was, in the Night, between the 13th and 14th of this Instant October, broke open, and a considerable Sum of Money feloniously taken thereout; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned therein, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Person, who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

T. ROBINSON.

And as a farther Encouragement, the said Mr. Marshall does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery, to be paid on the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

William Marshall.

General Post Office, October 14, 1754.

Whereas the Post Boy carrying the Hungerford Branch Mail, dispatched from this Office on Thursday the 10th Instant, was, upon Saturday last, between Morden and Lavington in the County of Wilts, attacked and robbed, by two Highwaymen, who opened the said Mail, and took thereout the Lavington and Tinehead Bags of Letters, and likewise took from the Post Boy five Shillings, and otherwise used him very cruelly.

The only Description that is yet come to hand, of the two Persons who committed this Robbery, is, that the one was mounted upon a black Horse or Mare, the other upon a brown one.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted,
