Smyrna, August 24.

THE Contagious Distemper that raged here with great Violence for two or three Months, is at length totally ceased; and the Christians, who are by much the greatest Part of the Inhabitants of this City, have caused Te Deum to be sung in all their Churches, for so happy a Deliverance.

Naples, Oct. 1. It is currently reported, that a Treaty of Accommodation between this Court, and the Order of Malta, is upon the Point of being settled to the mutual Satisfaction of both Parties. The two Gallies that have been for some Time on a Cruize off Orbitello and Porto Longone, in order to protect the Navigation of this Kingdom against the Pyrates of Algiers, Tripoly, and Tunis, are returned into Port for the Winter, the stormy Weather not permitting them to continue out at Sea any longer. Amongst the great Number of rich Pieces of Sculpture that have been found in the Ruins of the ancient City of Heraclia, the Curious seem most to admire an Equestrian Statue of black Marble that represents the Consul Nennius Balbus, which is very little damaged.

Petersbourg, Oct. 3. On the 23d of last Month, a new Man of War, of 80 Guns, was launched here, and called the St. Nicholas. The Great Princess was happily delivered of a Prince on the 1st Instant, who was afterwards christened by the Name of Paul. This happy Event was soon after made known to the People by several Discharges of the Cannon of the Forts, and of the Admiralty. The Great Princess, and the young Prince, are as well as can be expected.

Leghorn, Oct. 5. We are informed by our last Advices from Corsica, that the Conferences between the Marquis Doria, the Genoese new Commissary General in that Island, and the Deputies from the several Pieves attached to the Interest of the Malecontents, at Calvi, are broke off, and 'tis feared nothing but open Force will bring them to Reason.

Turin, Oct. 5. This Morning the Dutches of Savoy was happily delivered of a Prince, on whom the King has already conferred the Title of Duke de Monterrat. The young Prince was soon after christened by the Name of Amadee-Alexander-Marie.

Warsaw, Oct. 6. Last Monday the General Diet of this Kingdom was opened here with the usual Ceremonies. About Ten o'Clock in the Morning the King went in Procession to the Collegiate Church of St. John, and assisted at High Mass, at which the Bishop of Cracow officiated Pontifically. After which he went to the Senate, where Count Sapieha, Palatin of Polock, and Count Humiecki, Castellant of Kamienieck, took, from the Hands of his Majesty, the Oaths in Quality of new Senators. The Nuncios being afterwards assembled in their Chamber, M. Massalski, Treasurer of the Crown in Lithuania, and Nuncio of Grodno, who was Marshal the preceeding Diet, made, in Quality of Director of that Chamber, an excellent Speech, in which he exhorted the Nuncios to proceed immediately to the Election of a Marshal; but, some warm Debates arising thereupon, the Chamber adjourned. Since which they have met several Times, but the Disputes still continue, and they have not as yet been able to choose a Marshal.

Rome, Oct. 8. The Harvest has proved so very plentiful this Year in the Ecclesiastical State, that the Pope has granted his Subjects the Liberty to export Corn into other Countries. M. Archinto, the Pope's Nuncio at Poland, is arrived here, in order to take Possession of the important Post of Governor of this City. The Small Pox continues to rage here with great Violence, upwards of 3000 Persons having died of that fatal Distemper within these six Weeks.

Milan, Oct. 10. The Duke of Modena set out from hence last Monday Morning with a numerous Retinue for Mantua. His Highness was escorted by a Detachment of Hussars, and proposes, after visiting Mantua, to continue his Tour to Bozzolo, Casal-Maggiore, Cremona, and other Places in Austrian Lombardy.
