

The same Letters add, that the Marriage of the Hereditary Prince of that Name, with the Princess of Saxe-Cobourg, is to be celebrated at Cobourg towards the End of this Month. We have received an Account, that the Princess Mary Anne of Brunswick-Bevern, died a few Days ago in the 26th Year of her Age. We hear from Erbach, that the reigning Countess of that Name was safely delivered of a Prince on the 29th of last Month, who was baptized the same Day by the Name of Francis.

Brussels, Nov. 10. Prince Charles of Lorraine, and the Princess Charlotte his Sister, set out on Thursday last for the Seat of Prince Ligne, where they propose to stay some Days, and then to continue their Journey for Mons, where the Princess Charlotte of Lorraine intends to reside. On Thursday last Field Marshal Count Chanclos was seized with an Apoplectick Fit, but he is since greatly recovered. Last Week M. Haaren, one of the Dutch Commissaries, returned here from the Hague.

Utrecht, Nov. 11. M. Mansvelt, ancient Burgomaster of this City, having resigned, on Account of his ill State of Health, the Place he held in the Council of our Regency, her Royal Highness the Princess Governante has appointed his Son, M. Abraham Mansvelt, to succeed him; and Yesterday he took his Seat in the said Council with the usual Formalities.

Leyden, Nov. 12. Her Royal Highness the Princess Governante having appointed M. vander Marck to be Chief Magistrate of this City, he was accordingly installed into that Office last Sunday; and Messrs. Hoogenhouck, de Bye, de Gerven, and van Buren, were declared Burgomasters. At the same Time M. Schoonhoven was declared Treasurer; and Messrs. van de Velde, and Alensoon, to be Deputies, one to the Chamber of Accompts of the Generality, and the other to the College of the Admiralty of Amsterdam.

Hague, Nov. 12. Sunday being the King of Great Britain's Birth-Day, the same was observed here Yesterday, when the Ambassadors, Foreign Ministers, Lords of the Regency, and other Persons of Distinction, went to Court in their richest Habits, to compliment her Royal Highness the Princess Governante on that Occasion. And in the Evening Col. Yorke, the British Minister, gave a magnificent Supper, and a Ball; to which all Persons of Distinction were invited.

Dublin, November 11,

Yesterday being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth-Day, the Great Guns were fired in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answer'd by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: And this Day there was a numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, at the Castle, to compliment their Excellencies the Lords

Justices upon this happy Occasion, before whom an Ode was performed as usual. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

General Post Office, October 14, 1754.

Whereas the Post Boy carrying the Hungerford Branch Mail, dispatched from this Office on Thursday the 10th Instant, was, upon Saturday last, between Morden and Lavington in the County of Wilts, attacked and robbed, by two Highwaymen, who opened the said Mail, and took thereout the Lavington and Tinehead Bags of Letters, and likewise took from the Post Boy five Shillings, and otherwise used him very cruelly.

The only Description that is yet come to hand, of the two Persons who committed this Robbery, is, that the one was mounted upon a black Horse or Mare, the other upon a brown one.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the two Persons, or either of them, who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby both, or either of the Persons, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,

Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
