By the King,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For continuing the Encouragements to Seamen who shall enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; For encreasing the Bounty to all such Seamen who entred before the 6th of February last; For continuing the Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves: And also for giving Encouragement to such Able-bodied Landmen who have or shall enter into His Majesty's Service at Sea.

G E O R G E R.

Whereas by our Royal Proclamation, dated the Twenty Third Day of January last, intituled, A Proclamation for encouraging Seamen to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War, We were graciously pleased to promise, that every Able Seaman and every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who should voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, on or before the Twentieth Day of February last, in such Manner as in Our said Proclamation is required, should respectively receive, as of Our Royal Bounty, the respective Sums expressed in Our said Proclamation, (that is to say) every Able Seaman the Sum of Thirty Shillings, and every Ordinary Seaman the Sum of Twenty Shillings—And whereas by Our subsequent Proclamation, dated the Sixth of February last, intituled, A Proclamation for recalling and prohibiting Seamen from serving Foreign Princes and States; for giving further Encouragement to Seamen to Enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War;—and for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves,—We did further promise and declare, That all Able Seamen who should, on or before the Tenth Day of this Instant March, voluntarily Enter themselves in Our Service, in the Manner directed by Our afore recited Proclamation, should receive, as of Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Three Pounds, and all Ordinary Seamen so Entering themselves as aforesaid, the Sum of Two Pounds; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid for the Discovery of such Seamen who might conceal themselves—And whereas we are willing not only to continue the Encouragements and Rewards given by Our said last mentioned Proclamation for some longer Time, but to allow, that the said Encouragements to Volunteers should commence from the Twenty-third of January last, being the Date of Our first mentioned Proclamation; and likewise to give a Bounty to such Able-bodied Landmen who have or shall Enter into Our Service at Sea—We do therefore, by and with the Advice of Our Privy

Council, hereby promise and declare, That the said Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Forty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to all such Able and Ordinary Seamen, who shall Enter into Our Service, on or before the Thirty-first of this Instant March—And We do hereby promise and declare, that all such Able and Ordinary Seamen, who have Entred themselves into Our Service on or before the Sixth Day of February last, in Consequence of Our first Proclamation of the Twenty-third Day of January, shall receive the like Bounty with those who have Entered themselves subsequent to that Time, and that the Reward of two Pounds for every Able and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman be also continued to be paid to any Person, who shall, on or before the Thirty-first of this Instant March, discover any Seaman or Seamen, who may conceal themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for Our said Service by any of Our Sea-Officers employed for raising Men—And We do hereby further promise and declare, that all such Able-bodied Landmen, who have voluntarily Entered themselves into Our Service since the Twenty-third Day of January last, or shall Enter themselves into Our Service, on or before the Thirty-first of this Instant March, shall receive, as of Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man; all which respective Sums are hereby required to be paid by the Persons and at the Times directed by Our aforesaid Proclamations.

Given at our Court at St. James's the Eleventh Day of March 1755, and in the Twenty-eighth Year of Our Reign.

Algier, December 29. This Government is preparing to send a Ship with Presents for the Grand Signior, as usual on a new Dey's Accession, and to desire of the Sultan the Investiture of the Caffan for him; as, till that is sent, the Dey is never looked upon to be absolutely confirmed in his Office, and it is never refused by the Porte. The new Dey has published an Edict, forbidding the Moors to wear Gold and Silver upon their Cloaths. The Spanish Missionaries for the Redemption of Slaves left this City, on their Return to Cartagena, on the 24th past, having settled the Cartel for the Exchange of Prisoners. About a Month ago, a Saletine Cruizer of 18 Guns, and 150 Men, enter'd this Port with a French Prize, and has been allow'd to sell both Ship and Cargo.

Marseilles, March 10. The Master of a Vessel, belonging to this Place, coming from the Levant, met, on the 26th past, an English Ship, having on Board the Imperial Consul at Algier, on his Return to Leghorn.
