

Paris, March 19. Baron Gravenbrock, who was Minister from the Electors Palatin and Bavaria, had Yesterday an Audience of Leave, as Minister from the last mentioned Prince. M. van Eyck, Envoy Extraordinary from the Bishop of Liege, being appointed in his Room, has received Letters of Credence from the Elector of Bavaria, as Envoy Extraordinary to this Court, which he has notified to all the Foreign Ministers, but has not yet delivered them. M. de Gravenbrock remains as Minister Plenipotentiary from the Elector Palatin. Count Broglia, the French Ambassador to the Court of Saxony, arrived at Versailles last Saturday in the Evening.

Hague, March 21. The States of Holland continue their Deliberations upon the Reports of the Admiralties concerning the Affairs of the Free Port. The Government here is expecting further News from Algiers; as the Report of a Rupture with the Republick differs so widely from the Accounts of the Dutch Consul there of the 18th of February last, in which he mentions his having renewed the Treaties with the new Dey.

Whitehall, March 22, 1755.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, some Time in February last, the House of Mr. Harrington, of Great Tay in Essex, was broke open, and a Quantity of Money taken out, by five Persons, who answer the following Description: One young Man, five Feet three Inches high, full faced, pale Complexion, round visaged, brown Eyes, had on a dark drab Horseman's Coat, a light grey cut Wig, booted, rode a good black Horse or Mare, upwards of fifteen Hands high; the second a stout middle-aged Man, about five Feet six Inches high, full faced, fresh coloured, round visaged, had on a Scotch Plaid Waistcoat, a dark coloured Horseman's Coat, booted, rode a black Hobby, near fourteen Hands high, with a Hog Mane and short cut Tail; the third a round shouldered middle-aged Man, about five Feet four Inches high, small Visage, full eyed, ruddy Complexion, his Size small, had on a Plaid Waistcoat, a dark grey Wig, a Piece of red Cloth under his Chin, wore a very dark Horseman's Coat, and was booted, rode a very scrubby sorrel lean Horse, about fifteen Hands high; the fourth, a young Man, about twenty four Years of Age, pockfretten, long visaged, long Nose, thin faced, pale Complexion, about five Feet six Inches high, thin in Person, had on a Stock, an old surtout Coat, double breasted Coat with metal Buttons, very bad Boots, rode a good black Horse, with many silver Hairs on his Mane, Tail and Rump, and some spread all over him, about fifteen Hands and a Half high; the fifth, a young Man, under Age, near six Feet high, thin bodied, round faced, light brown Hair, curls very well, fresh Complexion, had on a bad Fustian Frock, a good dark coloured Horseman's Coat, booted, and rode a shabby Horse, about fourteen Hands high, of a bay Colour, short clipped Tail, hanging darkish Mane: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is pleased so promise His most gracious Pardon to any Person therein concerned, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

T. ROBINSON.

And, as a farther Encouragement for bringing to Justice any Person or Persons concerned in the said Robbery, I do hereby promise a Reward of Thirty Guineas to any Person who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

J. Fielding.

Whitehall, March 22, 1755.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that some evil disposed Persons lately broke into the Parish Church of Cirencester, and forced open the Parish Chest there, and took out of it, a large Sum of Money, amounting to upwards of One hundred and Sixty Pounds, besides Bonds, and other Securities belonging to the said Parish; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any Person therein concerned, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

T. ROBINSON.

Admiralty Office, March 24, 1755.

Whereas about Eight o'Clock at Night of the 20th Instant, divers Persons, to the Number of Twenty Seven and upwards, armed and disguised, some having their Faces blacked, some with Caps, and others with Handkerchiefs over their Heads, did unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assemble in the Town of Deal in the County of Kent, and then attacked a certain House in the said Town, where a Press Gang, employed to press Seamen for His Majesty's Service, then kept their Rendezvous, and not only broke the Windows of the said House, but also wilfully, maliciously, and cruelly beat and wounded several of the said Press Gang in a very dangerous Manner, and did also afterwards, the same Night, attack another House in the said Town of Deal, being the Dwelling House of Lieut. James Cunningham, the Commanding Officer of the said Press Gang, and broke the Windows, Window Shutters, and Iron Bars of that House, and were proceeding to commit further Outrages there, had they not been prevented by the Assistance of the Civil Magistrates: And my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, judging it highly necessary that the Persons guilty of the above-mentioned Offences should be immediately detected and brought to Justice; I do therefore, in Obedience to their Lordships Commands, hereby offer a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for the discovering, apprehending and prosecuting of all, or any three or more of the Persons who were principally guilty of the several Offences aforesaid; which Reward shall, upon the Conviction of such Three, or more of the said principal Offenders, be paid and distributed by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, unto and amongst the several Persons who shall be concerned in discovering, apprehending and prosecuting the said Offenders, in such Proportions as he the said Solicitor shall judge to be reasonable.

J. Cleveland.

Victualling Office, March 21, 1755.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy hereby give Notice, That on Friday the 4th of April next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for furnishing such of his Majesty's Ships and Vessels with Provisions, as may touch at Lynn in Norfolk, and be in want thereof. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London, or by applying to the Collector of his Majesty's Customs at Lynn.

March 20, 1755.

These are to give Notice, that a General Meeting of the Trustees for the River LEE, will be held by Adjournment, at the Bull Inn at Hoddesdon in Hertfordshire, on Monday the 14th Day of April next, at Ten in the Morning. Bos. Toller, Clerk to the said Trustees.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, The Creditors and Legatees of Thomas Burder, late of Leadenhall Street, London, Sadler, deceased, are forthwith to come in and prove their Debts and claim their Legacies, before Thomas Harris, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Lincoln's Inn; or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.