

presented the same to his Majesty on Tuesday last in a private Audience, to which he was conducted by the Marquess de Verneuil, Introducer of Ambassadors. The Dukes of Rochefort, Fitz-James, Harcourt, Antin and Valentinois, took their Seats last Monday in Parliament, in Quality of Peers of France.

Hague, March 25. Her Royal Highness the Princess Governante is perfectly recovered from her late Illness. This Morning the States of this Province reassumed their Deliberations; and the Deputies of the several Colleges of the Admiralty meet regularly to consider of the Affairs of their Department. The Council of State has named M. van Wullen, to replace the late Baron Villattes in the Employment of Receiver of the publick Revenues in the District of Kempeiland, which is Part of the Mayoralty of Bois-le-duc. We have received an Account of the Death of M. Lely, Lieutenant General of Foot in the Service of this Republick; as also of M. Quintus, Chief of the Provincial Chamber of Justice at Groninguen.

Admiralty Office, March 24, 1755.

Whereas about Eight o'Clock at Night of the 20th Instant, divers Persons, to the Number of Twenty Seven and upwards, armed and disguised, some having their Faces blacked, some with Caps, and others with Hatches over their Heads, did unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assemble in the Town of Deal in the County of Kent, and then attacked a certain House in the said Town, where a Press Gang, employed to press Seamen for His Majesty's Service, then kept their Rendezvous, and not only broke the Windows of the said House, but also wilfully, maliciously, and cruelly beat and wounded several of the said Press Gang in a very dangerous Manner, and did also afterwards, the same Night, attack another House in the said Town of Deal, being the Dwelling House of Lieut. James Cunningham, the Commanding Officer of the said Press Gang, and broke the Windows, Window Shutters, and Iron Bars of that House, and were proceeding to commit further Outrages there, had they not been prevented by the Assistance of the Civil Magistrates: And my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, judging it highly necessary that the Persons guilty of the above-mentioned Offences should be immediately detected and brought to Justice; I do therefore, in Obedience to their Lordships Commands, hereby offer a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for the discovering, apprehending and prosecuting of all, or any three or more of the Persons who were principally guilty of the several Offences aforesaid; which Reward shall, upon the Conviction of such Three, or more of the said principal Offenders, be paid and distributed by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, unto and amongst the several Persons who shall be concerned in discovering, apprehending and prosecuting the said Offenders, in such Proportions as he the said Solicitor shall judge to be reasonable.
