Leghorn, March 30. Yesterday M. Standy, their Imperial Majesties late Consul at Algiers, arrived here from Port Mahon in an English Ship, on board of which he embarked at Algiers on the 4th Instant, soon after that Regency had taken the Resolution to declare War against Tuscany. We are informed by the Master of a Ship that arrived here a few Days ago from Ajaccio, that every Thing is in perfect Tranquility in Corfica, owing to the prudent Management of the Marquis Doria, the Republick of Genoa's Commissary General in that Island.

Madrid, March 31. Their Catholick Majesties continue in perfect Health at their Palace of Buen-Retiro. They attended last Week at the usual Devotions of the Season, and last Night the Court-Diversions were again opened, with the Performance of the Opera of Dido. This Day being the Queen of Portugal's Birth-Day, their Majesties received the Compliments usual on the Occasion, and the Marquis de Tripucci, Mayor-domo-Mayor to the Queen-Dowager, and the Marquis de la Mina, Governor of Catalonia, had the Honour to be covered for the first Time, as Grandees of Spain. Count Azlor his Catholick Majesty's late Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Vienna, arrived here some Days ago, and will soon set out for Cadiz, to take Possession of that Government.

Copenhagen, April 4. On Wednesday last, being the King's Birth-Day, the same was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence. On this Occasion their Majesties dined in Publick, the Foreign Ministers and principal Nobility of both Sexes being seated at three other Tables; and at Night there was a Supper, consisting of 70 Dishes, and afterwards a Ball, which was opened by the Queen and the Prince Royal, and lasted till Break of Day. The Household of the Prince Royal is compleatly formed, and M. Berckentin is appointed Grand Master thereof. On the 28th past, the Ice upon the Sound began to break, and the Wind having continued ever since at South West, the Passage thereof is now become free, but the Great Belt is still covered with Ice. The Time is not yet fixed for their Majesties Departure for Frederichsbourg, where they propose to spend Part of the Summer, but 'tis thought it will shortly take Place.

Ulm, April 7. As there were some Papers of Consequence in the Mail that was sent from Schaffhausen to Swisserland on the 27th past, which was lost in passing a River near this City, by the Courier's missing the Bridge that was then covered with Water, the greatest Pains imaginable
