A NEW UNIVERSAL ETYMOLOGICAL ENGLISH DICTIONARY.

In which the several Senses of the Words in the English Language are fully and distinctly explained, and such as appear dubious, supported by proper Authorities. Together with Explanations of all the Terms in the several Arts and Sciences, whether Liberal or Mechanical, and Accents directing to their proper Pronunciation.

Illustrated with COPPER PLATES, to explain those Figures which cannot be so well understood from verbal Description only.

Also a Collection of the best English Proverbs; The Mythology of the Ancients; The Situation, Trade and Constitution of all the Kingdoms of the known World, with a Description of its most remarkable Places; and particularly those of Great Britain and Ireland. A Work highly useful for such as would understand what they Read and Hear, Speak what they Mean, and write true English.

The Whole calculated for general Use and Benefit. Originally compiled by N. BAILEY. Assisted by G. Gordon, P. Miller, and T. Lediard. And now re-published, with many Corrections, Additions, and Literate Improvements, by different Hands.

The Etymology of all Terms mentioned as derived from the Greek, Hebrew, Arabic, and other Asiatic Languages, being revised and corrected.

By JOSEPH NICOL SCOTT, M.D.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS-PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuritis, Quinies, acute Rheumatism, and the looseness of Spirits, and Uncasiness proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine) is sold by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over against the North Door of the Church, at a 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Ball, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published at the Print above-mentioned. Price 6s. 6d.
