Naples, July 1.

LAST Week the Court came from Portici, and 'tis said their Majesties will go shortly to Caserta, in order to spend some Time. The King has declared his Intention of speedily making a numerous Promotion of Military Officers. His Majesty has conferred on the Marquess de Fogliani, Viceroy of Sicily, the Title of Captain General, in Consideration of his good Services whilst he was at the Head of publick Affairs. Four of the King's Gallies are sailed from hence on a Cruize against the Barbary Pyrates, who greatly interrupt the Navigation in the Seas of Calabria.

Stockholm, July 8. Strict Enquiry is making, by Order of the Court, after the Persons who lately stoppt the Courier that was carrying Dispatches from hence to Russia, and a large Reward is offered for apprehending them. The King has conferred on M. Cronstedt, Director of the Fortifications, the Rank of Lieutenant General; and the Post of first Auditor of the Accompts of the Army in Finland, is conferred by his Majesty on M. Hagert. They have already begun, in several Provinces of this Kingdom, to nominate Deputies to assist at the next General Diet.

Genoa, July 12. On the 6th Instant arrived an English Vessel from Algiers, and brought Letters of the 23d past, which advise the Arrival there of a Sweeds Ship and French Polacca from Constantinople, with Presents from the Grand Signior for that Regency; the Sweeds Cargoe consisted of 5000 Cannon Balls, 500 Bomb Shells, 500 Quintals of Hemp, 500 ditto of Rosin, 500 Pair of long and 500 Pair of short Oars, 20 Pieces of Brass Cannon, four Morters and four Masts; and the French Polacca's consisted of 3000 Cannon Balls, and 2000 Quintals of Gun Powder. The same Letters mention, that their Cruizers had been very unsuccessful, since their Declaration of War against the Imperialists and the Dutch. On the 6th Instant in the Morning arrived here, his Britannick Majesty's Ship Unicorn, Captain Mathew Buckle, in nine Days from Mahone, and sailed again the next Evening to join Commodore Edgcumbe at Villa Franca. Letters from Bastia of the 4th Instant advise the Arrival there of M. Midon, an Engineer sent by this Republick to inspect the Fortifications in their Possession on the Island, and particularly those of Bastia. The Inhabitants of Olmita, in the Province of Cape Corse, refusing to pay the annual Tribute to the Collectors for the Republick, and having written a disrespectful Letter to the Commiffary General Marquis Doria, a Detachment of Soldiers was sent and landed under Cover of the Galleys, and took several of the Malecontents Prisoners, whom they carried to Bastia. The Chiefs of the Malecontents have published an Edict, and appointed Collectors to receive the Corn and Fruits belonging to the Bishop and Canons of Bastia, and those of the Procoi belonging to the Genoese Families.

Munich, July 12.
