Constantinople, June 16.

ON the 8th Instant the Mufti Irani Abdullah Efendi was deposed, and Damazade Efendi has succeeded him. Every Thing continues here perfectly quiet.

Lisbon, July 15. On the 7th Instant, the French Squadron, under the Command of Count de Gay, which anchored in this River on the 19th past, set sail with a fresh Northerly Wind for the Southward. By common Report they are bound directly for Cadiz. On the 29th past, Senhor Dom Juan, the late Infant Dom Francisco's natural Son, kissed the King's Hand, upon his having been appointed to command the three Ships of War equipping in this Harbour to cruize against the Algerines, who of late have greatly infested the Coasts of Portugal. The Lord Bruce arrived here two Days ago from Madrid, and is shortly to be presented to the Royal Family by his Britannick Majesty's Minister at this Court.

Turin, July 19. His Sardinian Majesty set out on Thursday Morning for the Baths of Vaudieres, where his Majesty proposes to stay three Weeks. The Day before the King went, the following Promotions were declared at Court. His Excellency the Marquis Pallavicini was made Great Master of the Artillery, Count Briguerasque, formerly Vice-Roy in Sardinia, was appointed Governor of Tortona, in the Room of his Excellency the Commander Barol, nominated to be Governor of the Citadel of Turin, which Employment had been long vacant. Count d'Entremont, a younger Brother of the Marquis des Marches, is made Captain of the first Company of Life-Guards called the Savoyards, which the Marquis de Salle enjoyed, who has resign'd on Account of his Age. The Chevalier Occhis is created Governor of Suze; M. d'Esouliers, Commandant in Savoy; M. Guibert, late Captain of the Galleys, Chief of the Naval Squadron; and M. Wagenem, Colonel of the Regiment of Savoy.

Madrid, July 21. On the 10th Instant died here, in the 79th Year of his Age, Don Francisco Perez de Prado y Cuesta, Bishop of Teruel, Inquisitor-General; to which Employment his Catholic Majesty has since been pleased to nominate Don Manuel Quintano Bonifaz, Archbishop of Pharsalia, and, lately, Administrator to the Infant Don Luis, for the Spiritualities of the Archbishoprick of Toledo. Letters from Cadiz of the 15th advise, that on the 13th arrived there from Lisbon, the French Squadron, consisting of six Ships of the Line, and three Frigates; and that it was said, they were to proceed from thence to Malaga. Some Days before, two Swedish Men of War, of 60 Guns, likewise arrived there, in their Way to Algiers. The same Letters mention, that the Harvest in that Province had been this Year the greatest that ever was known; and that, notwithstanding the Scarcity of the last Year's, Permission had been granted for the Exportation of 60000 Fanegas of Corn from Seville.

Venice, July 25. On Saturday last died here, aged 73, Signor Cavalier Bragadin, one of the Procurators of St. Mark; and on Tuesday Signor Cavalier Francesco Morosini was chosen by the Great Council Procurator in his Room. The same Day the Margrave and Margravine of Bareith received the usual Regale made by the Republick to Sovereign Princes here, and in the Evening left this Place on their Return to Bareith.

Hanover, July 27. Count Haslang, Minister from the Elector of Bavaria, is arrived here from England; as is also Count Colorado from the Imperial Court.

Hambourg, July 29. The Dutchess of Holstein has received the News of the Death of her Sister-in-Law, the Abbess of Quedlimburgh, in the 78th Year of her Age; and the Princess Amelia, Sister to the King of Prussia, succeeds as Abbess of that Chapter, having been chosen Coadjatrix to the late Princess of Holstein some Years ago. The Grand Duke has conferred the Key of Chamberlain upon the Baron de Stambke, his Imperial Highness's accredited Minister in this Residence, for the Affairs of Holstein. The Hereditary Prince and Princess of Mecklenbourg, accompanied by Prince Lewis, their Brother, and the Princess he lately married, (a Princess of Cobourg) are come to pass a few Days at Hamburgh.

Hambourg, Aug. 1. Baron Scheffer, the Swedish Envoy at the Court of France, is arrived here from Paris, on his Way to Stockholm.
