

such printed Copies of such Brief, some or one of them, pursuant to the said Act. And whereas it frequently happens, that the Estimate of the Loss or Damage mentioned in the Certificate made by the Justices of the Peace in their Quarter Sessions, in order to such Briefs, doth not amount to a Sum sufficient in itself to bear the Expence thereof, whereby it becomes necessary, and has been constantly practiced to join two or more such small Estimates of Loss or Damage in one Brief, and to issue Letters Patents for the same, jointly, in order to divide the Burden of such Expence, and thereby alleviate the same to the Sufferers: I do hereby declare, That all the printed Copies of such conjunct Briefs shall be delivered to the Person or Persons appointed to be the Undertaker or Undertakers for laying and disposing the printed Copies of such Briefs by the Petitioner or Petitioners, or the major Part of them, the Estimate of whose Loss or Damage shall, by such Certificate of the Justices of the Peace, amount to the largest Sum; and such Person and Persons so appointed shall have the sole laying and disposing of all the printed Copies of such conjunct Briefs, and the sole Collection of the Money to be received thereupon; and I hereby further Order, that in all Cases wherein Default shall be made in observing these Regulations, the issuing of such Briefs shall be stayed; and this Order is forthwith to be affixed up in the Office of the Clerk and Secretary of the Briefs, and to be forthwith printed and published in the London Gazette.

N. 4015.

THE 3d of August 1754, it was notified to the Executors, by the Owners in the Ship Catharine Elizabeth, belonging to this Place, that Capt. Niles Bie, who commanded it, was deceased in Laurhullen, in the Southern Part of Norway, and in which Port the Ship lay, desiring that the Court might take the Effects he was possessed of in this Place in his surviving Widow's Habitation, under its Sale; which was done the same Day at her Lodging in the Suburb of the Bay, where the Papers were sealed up, and the Moveables that were found were written down and appraised, notwithstanding the Widow alleged that they were her-Son Peter Holgerfon's Property, and borrowed of him for Use. The 12th of February 1755, one of the Owners of the aforesaid Ship Catherine Elizabeth, namely Mr. Jens Nicholai Rosholt, notified, that the late Niles Bies's Widow, Margretta Holm, was then deceased, wherefore, after her, likewise was sealed up, and the little wearing Apparel found after her, register'd and appraised, as well as the wearing Apparel and traveling Accoutrements come here with the Ship; which on Capt Niles Bies's Demise were, by the Executor of the Place, Counsellor of Justice, and Sheriff Braunmann, written down, and sealed up, register'd and appraised: Now whereas all the Owners of the said Ship desire, that Capt. Niles Bies, and his Wife Margretta Holm, deceased, may be published in the Gazettes and News Papers, to be made known both at Home and Abroad; and that Creditors and Debtors to their Affairs may be called in against a certain Day; They are accordingly warned by these Presents, to meet in the aforesaid Mr. Jens Nicholai Rosholt's Dwelling-house here in Dronthon, within a Year and six Weeks from the Date hereof, when the Vouchers of each, and their Allegations in their Turn as they come in, shall be register'd in the Executors Books, and every one fare as the Law and Right dictate.

Dronthon,
May 12, 1755.

On Behalf of the Executors
of the Town,

Jens Hoving.
