

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 4, to Tuesday October 7, 1755.

Kensington, October 7.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and principal Inhabitants, of the Borough of Plymouth, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Freemen, and principal Inhabitants, of your Majesty's Borough of Plymouth,

With all Duty, and Humility, beseech your Majesty to accept our most sincere and joyful Congratulations, on your Majesty's safe and happy Return to your British Dominions.

As it is with the fullest and most dutiful Sense of the many inestimable Blessings deriv'd to us thro' the unvaried Wisdom and Goodness of your Majesty's Administration, that we presume to approach your Royal Throne; so we cannot omit our most grateful Acknowledgements of your Majesty's unspeakable Vigilance and affectionate Concern for the Interest of your People, in seasonably providing for the Security of their Trade, and the Defence of their Possessions, against the Attempts of a restless and powerful Invader of them.

May your Majesty's Measures for vindicating the Rights of your Crown, and restoring the publick Tranquillity, be attended with Success as eminent, as the Vigour and Firmness with which they are conducted; and may your Majesty long enjoy the Returns of Duty and Allegiance, from a happy and flourishing People.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall cheerfully embrace every Opportunity of demonstrating, with how much Zeal we concur with the universal Sense of your Majesty's People, in Devotion and Fidelity to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Kensington, October 5.

This Day Count Viri, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

And afterwards a private Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, at Carlton House.

To both which he was introduced by Charles Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Lisbon, Sept. 22. On the 1st Instant the Fleet from Rio de Janeiro anchored in this River, consisting of 28 Ships from thence, and seven from Fernambuco, under the Convoy of a Man of War. The Treasure on Board of the latter is computed at about Eight Millions of Cruzados, one Million of which belongs to the King, and the rest to the Commerce, besides a great Quantity of Hides, and other Articles of the Produce of those Parts, brought home by the Merchantmen. The Bahia Fleet, consisting of 19 Merchantmen under Convoy of a Man of War, arrived here on the 19th Instant, together with two Ships from the Indies; The Treasure amounts to between two and three Millions of Cruzados, much the greater Part of which belongs to the Commerce, besides 10,000 Rolls of Tobacco, 5000 raw and as many tanned Hides. In one of the India Ships came home the Marquis de Tavora; late Viceroy of Goa, with his Lady, who have both met with a most gracious Reception from their most Faithful Majesties.

Whitehall, October 7.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Alexander Murray, Esq; to be Major, and likewise Captain of a Company,

James Cunningham, Esq; to be a Captain, Erasmus John Phillips, Gent. to be a Lieutenant, and James Ouchterloney, Quarter-Master, in the Regiment of Foot, commanded by Hugh Warburton, Esq; Major General of His Majesty's Forces.

Dudley Ackland, Esq; to be a Captain, Samuel Buck Veale, Esq; to be Captain Lieutenant, Alexander Rigby, Gent. to be a Lieutenant, and Edward Troller Bennerman, Gent. to be an Ensign, in the Regiment of Foot, commanded by Robert Manners, Esq; commonly called Lord Robert Manners.

John Whitmore, Esq; to be Captain Lieutenant, and

Edward Arblaster, Gent. to be a Lieutenant, in the Inniskilling Regiment of Dragoons, commanded by James Cholmondeley, Esq; Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Forces.

Isaac Hamilton, Gent. to be a Lieutenant, and,

Blany Brabazon, Gent. to be an Ensign, in the Royal Irish Regiment of Foot, commanded by John Follitt, Esq; Major General of His Majesty's Forces.

Craskell, Gent. to be a Lieutenant in the Regiment of Foot, commanded by Col. George Walsh.

James Poole, Gent. to be an Ensign in the King's own Regiment of Foot, commanded by Col. Robert Rich.

Samuel Bowers, Gent. to be an Ensign in the Regiment of Foot, commanded by James Stuart, Esq; Major General of His Majesty's Forces.

Sponge, Gent. to be an Ensign in the Regiment of Foot, commanded by Colonel Philip Honeywood.

David Ross, Esq; to be a Captain, Edward Barry, Esq; to be Captain Lieutenant, James Smith, Gent. to be a Lieutenant, and, Davidson Day, Gent. to be an Ensign in the Regiment of Foot, commanded by George Bentinck, Esq; commonly called Lord George Bentinck.

James Harrington, Esq; to be Lieutenant to the second Troop of Horse Grenadier Guards, commanded