

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 7, to Saturday October 11, 1755.

Kensington, October 11.

THE following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquess of Hartington, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Robinson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

BE pleased to accept from us, your most dutiful Subjects, a feint Expression of those Sentiments, which Loyalty and Gratitude inspire, on your safe Return to Great Britain.

Welcome! Royal Sir, to those Dominions where you reign in the Hearts of your People—Welcome! to that People, whose Happiness is, in a great Measure, derived from your Princely Care.

We cannot sufficiently admire your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours, for the effectual Support of the Honour of your Crown, and the Protection of all your Subjects; nor can we sufficiently revere that tender and diffusive Regard to your People, which will not suffer the Rights of the remotest American in the Colonies, to be invaded with Impunity.

No Monarch can be more anxious to continue to His Subjects the Blessings of Peace—None more ready to encounter all the Dangers of War, when Peace cannot otherwise be secured to them.

From you, Great Sir, Kings may learn to make their Subjects happy; and from us, those

[ Price Four-Pence. ]

Subjects may be taught to know, that their Lives and Fortunes ought at all Times to be devoted to the Interest and Honour of such a Prince.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, this Third Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Five.

Constantinople, Sept. 1. On the 24th past the Vizir was suddenly depos'd and exil'd to Scio: He is succeeded by the Nissangi Paschi, late Selichtar Aga or Sword Bearer, who is in high Favour with the Sultan. He was no sooner invested with his new Dignity, than he immediately changed the Reis Esfendi, and sent him to Lemnos; however, that Exile has been since mitigated, by allowing him to frequent any Place except the City of Constantinople. Never was a greater Joy shewn, than on the Deposition of that Minister. His Successor is one Soparalan Achmet Esfendi, who has pass'd through several important Offices, particularly that of Testerdar or High Treasurer. There is Reason to think that the present Ministry will be durable. The Vizir is occupied in endeavouring to remedy the Scarcity of Provisions, by dispatching proper Orders to several Parts of the Empire for a Supply. His Excellency Mr. Porter, His Britannick Majesty's Ambassador, had his Audience of the Vizir Yesterday, to congratulate him on his Accession to that high Dignity; it pass'd with the greatest Civility, and the strongest Professions of the Sultan's Regard and Friendship for his Majesty. The Venetian and Dutch Ambassadors had their Audiences the same Day; the rest of the Foreign Ministers will immediately follow. Baron Benckler, the Imperial Minister, set out this Day on his Return to Vienna.

Naples, Sept. 16. His Britannick Majesty's Sloop the Speedwell, Capt. Webb, arrived here on Thursday last, and sailed again on Sunday in the Evening. On Friday the 12th Instant M. Pallavicini, the Pope's Nuncio, made his publick

