

publick Entry into this City; and this Morning he had also his publick Audience of their Sicilian Majesties. This Morning the two Dutch Men of War, with eight Merchant Ships under their Convoy, sailed for Malta, where they are to meet the Ships coming from the Levant, and take them also under their Convoy.

Dresden, Sept. 28. This Court sets out after To-morrow for Hubertsburgh and Leipzig: And it has been insinuated to the Foreign Ministers, that as his Polish Majesty did not intend to fix at Hubertsburgh, but would hunt at different Places, they might save themselves the Trouble of following him thither.

Hambourg, Sept. 30. His Danish Majesty's Envoy to the Court of England, M. de Rantzau, who has passed a few Weeks in Holstein upon his private Affairs, is set out from hence this Day, in order to return to his Post.

Hambourg, Oct. 3. Count Zintzendorff, who was sent this last Summer, on the Part of the Emperor and Empress-Queen, to compliment the Court of Russia upon the Birth of the young Prince, and had reached Hambourg on his Return to Vienna, has received Orders to go back to Petersbourg; where he is to reside in the Room of Count Esterhafi, who has obtained Leave to go to Carlsbad for the Recovery of his Health.

Brussels, Oct. 3. According to our last Advices from Dunkirk, the Works carrying on there were almost compleated; the last Battery was to be finished this Week. The Ingenieurs have been very busy in measuring and sounding the Harbour; and it was said that 800 Pioneers were expected there, in order, as was thought, to be employed in clearing it directly.

Hague, Oct. 3. The States of Holland will separate this Day or To-morrow Morning. Their Noble Mightinesses have come to no remarkable Resolutions in this Assembly, having only gone through the ordinary Business, and disposed of some vacant Employments. M. Buys is appointed Counsellor of the Court of Holland; and M. Mauritius, formerly Governor of Surinam, is appointed Minister at Hambourg, in the room of M. Buys. We are told here, that M. D'Affri, Major General and Lieutenant Colonel of the French Swiss Guards, is soon to set out from Paris for this Place, to execute an extraordinary Commission to their High Mightinesses. All the Advices from the Frontier confirm the March of the French Troops from their Camps into Quarters, and that every Thing is perfectly quiet in those Parts.

Whitehall, October 11, 1755.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, by the Commissioners for Managing His Majesty's Customs in that Part of His Majesty's Kingdom of Great-Britain called Scotland, That, in the Night of the 21st of July last, several Persons came on Board a Ship just then arrived at Pittenweem, from Foreign Parts, and forced from the Deck into the Cabbin, four Tidesmen, stationed in the said Ship, and there kept them close confined, till the Persons aforesaid had landed and carried off the entire Cargo thereof, and then set the said Ship adrift, which remained till Morning on the Rocks; and that the said Commissioners, upon receiving Notice of this outrageous Riot and Deserement, had offered, and published, a Reward of Fifty Pounds for the Discovery of any of the Persons concern'd; His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice, the Persons concerned in the said outrageous Riot and Deserement, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that they, or any one of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

War Office, October 2, 1755.

Whereas His Majesty hath thought proper to direct, that all the Reduced Officers of the Land Forces and Marines on the British Establishment of Half Pay, do forthwith transmit to this Office Their Age; The Country where they were born; The Dates and Ranks of the several Commissions they have had in the Army; The Quality and Corps, with the Time when they were placed upon Half Pay; And whether they came on by Reduction, Purchase, and from whom; Or by Exchange with whom, and from what Corps. His Majesty doth hereby require, that each of the said Reduced Officers do immediately send to this Office the several Particulars relating to himself, as above directed, on Pain of being omitted in the next Establishment of Half Pay.
