Kensington, November 1.

TH E following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Edinburgh, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant General Campbell: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Edinburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Edinburgh, do, with all Humility, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, upon your happy Return to your Kingdom.

The Spirit and Vigour with which your Majesty has supported the Rights of your Crown and Kingdom, when unjustly invaded, makes it our indispensable Duty to applaud those Measures, wherein all Considerations have been manifestly postponed, to the Interest of the British Dominions.

That Heaven may avert all Dangers that threaten us in the present Conjunction, by a long Continuance of that precious Life, which has been hitherto spent in maintaining the Liberties and defending the Honour of the Kingdom of Great Britain, are the ardent Wishes and Prayers of this City.

Signed in Presence, and by Order of the Council, Edinburgh, Oct. 22, 1735. G. Drummond, Provost.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Common Council-men, and Burgesses, of the County Borough of Carmarthen, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Stepney, Bart. Member of Parliament for the Town of Carmarthen: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Common Council-men, and Burgesses, of the County Borough of Carmarthen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the general Joy of the Nation for your Majesty's safe and happy Return to your British Dominions, be pleased to accept the sincere Congratulations of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Common Council-men, and Burgesses, of the County Borough of Carmarthen.

Permit us at the same Time, Royal Sir, to declare the just and grateful Sense we have of your Majesty's paternal and vigilant Care over your People; and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person, Royal Family, and Government.

May the Divine Providence long preserve your Majesty to reign over these Kingdoms; and may there never be wanting a Succession of Princes in your Royal House, form'd by your great Example, to continue the Blessing of Civil and Religious Freedom to latest Posterity.

Carmarthen, October 1755.

Kensington, October 30.

This Day Don Felix de Abreu et Bertodano, Knight of the Order of St. James, had a Private Audience of His Majesty, to deliver his Letters of Credence, as Envoy Extraordinary from his Catholick Majesty: To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable Sir Thos^{as} Robinson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Rome, Oct. 4. At the Request of his Catholick Majesty, a new Bishoptick, by the Title of St. Andrew, has been established in Spain, out of that of Burgos. This new Benefice, with a Revenue of about sixty thousand Crowns per Annum, is to be conferred upon M. Arizza. Last Week anchored at Civita Vecchia, from Malta, the Pope's second Frigate, St. Paul, commanded by the Chevalier Pollastron, in order to Cruize on the Roman Coast against the Barbary Pirates, in the Room of the Gallies, which are disarmed. On the 26th, in the Evening, the Elector of Cologne, after having visited the Basilick Churches of this City, was, by M. Reali, Master of the Ceremonies, introduced to an Audience of the Pope, who received him with great Marks of Distinction; and, on the 28th, presented him with divers Sorts of Sweet Meats, Fruits, Liquors, &c. which were carried to his Palace by 48 Servants, to whom the Elector ordered 50 Pistoles, and, to M. Presi, the Pope's Steward, who accompanied them, a Gold Snuff-Box, valued at about 100 Zuckeens. His Electoral Highness has taken a Villa at Frascati, where he proposes to pass the present Autumn. The Duke of Gravina is on his Departure for Naples, being sent
