St. James's, November 18.

THE following Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of Glasgow, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and stedfast Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Glasgow, in Common Council assembled, on this joyful Anniversary of your Majesty's auspicious Birth, beg Leave, in the most humble and submissive Manner, to express our Gladness of Heart upon your Majesty's safe and happy Return to your British Dominions.

The paternal Care which your Majesty at all Times discovers for the Prosperity and Protection of your People; the Vigilance which your Majesty exerts in Defence of your Kingdom and Colonies against the Encroachments and perfidious Designs of restless Neighbours, inspire our Hearts with the strongest Gratitude and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, Family, and Government.

That your Majesty's precious and inestimable Life may be long preserved to promote the Felicity of Great Britain, is the unfeigned and fervent Prayer of this always loyal City.

Signed in Presence, and by Order of the Council,

Glasgow, Nov. 10, 1755. George Murdock, Provost.

Cologne, Nov. 9. Last Night the Imperial Courier passed through this Town, with the good News of her Imperial Majesty's being safely delivered of an Archduchess the 2d, between Seven and Eight at Night. The Elector of Cologne came to Rome the 20th past, took Leave of the Pope, and the Cardinal Secretary of State next Day, and was to set out the 23d for Venice. The Elector of Palatine sets out from Dusseldorf in a few Days, intending to be at Manheim before the 19th. The Prince of Deux Ponts set out the 6th, and the Great Marshal passed through this Town, in his Return to Manheim, the 7th.

Brassels, Nov. 11. We are positively assured, that the French have assembled upon the Esplanade at Douay, between six and seven hundred Waggons. We are likewise informed, that Orders have been given by the Court of France for augmenting the Irish Brigade with 20 Men per Company. A Messenger arrived here Yesterday from Vienna, with the News that the Empress Queen was safely delivered of an Archduchess on the 2d Instant.

Brussels, Nov. 14. All the Waggons that were lately assembled on the Esplanade at Douay, are gone empty from thence, and had been employed in transporting Carriages and Wheels for Cannon, which had been made at Peronne and St. Quentin. On the 1st Instant, 24 Pieces of Cannon were likewise brought from Arras, to the Arsenal at Douay, to be new cast. Our Advices add, that a great Number of Blacksmiths and Wheelwrights had been pressed to work in that Arsenal, where every Thing was preparing with the greatest Diligence.

Whitehall, November 18.

The King has been pleased to grant unto William Johnson, of the Colony of New York in America, Esq; and to the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great Britain.

The King has been pleased to order Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the Kingdom of Ireland, containing a Grant of the Dignity of Viscount of the said Kingdom unto Robert Baron Newport, Chancellor of the said Kingdom, and to the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, by the Name, Stile and Title of Viscount Jocelyn of the said Kingdom.

The King has been pleased to order Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the Kingdom of Ireland, containing a Grant of the Dignity of Baron of the said Kingdom unto Peter Ludlow, of Ardsfalia in the County of Meath, Esq; and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, by the Name, Stile and Title of Baron Ludlow of Ardsfalia in the said County.

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Pownall, Esq; the Office or Place of Clerk of the Naval or Navy Office, in the Island of Jamaica in America, in the Room of Richard Shelley, Esq; deceased.

Dublin, November 11.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth-day, the Great Guns were fired at His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: At Noon there was a very splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, of both Sexes, at the Castle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and an Ode set to Musick, was performed upon the Occasion. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies; after which there was a Ball in the Castle, and the Evening concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Whitehall, November 15, 1755.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Friday the 17th of October last, about One o'Clock in the Morning, William Collet, (then Keeper of the Turnpike Gate at Buscot, near St. John's Bridge in the County of Berks,) was shot dead by a Person unknown, supposed to be a Highwayman, or other Horseman, who came to rob him, (a Pistol-Ball having been found lying on the Ground by him, which had gone in at the upper Part of his Breast, and come out at the lower Part of his Back;) His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person who committed the Act of Murder abovementioned, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Accomplice he might have therein, who shall make such Discovery of him, that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and likewise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of the said Murderer.

HOLDERNESSE.

Admiralty Office, Nov. 15, 1755.

Notice is hereby given, to all Sea Officers who are absent with Leave, from my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that it is their Lordships Directions, that they return to England, within six Months after the Date hereof; or they will forfeit all the Half-Pay that may be due to them.

J. Cleveland.

Office of Ordnance, Tower of London,

Nov. 13, 1755.

The Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that whosoever will discover to them any Fire Arms concealed in any Part of Great Britain, so as the same may be properly secured till his Majesty's Pleasure shall be known therein, the Name or Names of the Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery shall be concealed, if required, and he or they shall receive, as a Reward for the same, after the Rate of Twenty Five Pounds for every 100 Arms, and so in Proportion be the Number more or less.

By Order of the Board,
William Bogdani.

East India House, Nov. 12, 1755.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice, that a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-street, London, on Wednesday the 26th Day of this Instant November, at Eleven in the Forenoon, to consider of reducing the Dividend, payable on the Capital Stock of the Company, from and after Christmas next, Old Stile, it being required by the 29th By-Law that no Alteration shall be made therein, without first giving six Months publick Notice thereof.

Whereas the Trustees of the Estate and Effects of Vincent Phipps, late of Oswestry in the County of Salop, Grocer, deceased, in Trust for his Creditors, did heretofore give Notice to the said Creditors in this and other publick Papers, that they were desired to meet at the House of Joseph Lawrence, at the Sign of the Raven in Shrewsbury, on Monday the 20th Day of October last, to receive the Dividend arising from the Estate and Effects of the said Vincent Phipps, as far as the said Effects would reach; and whereas the said Trustees and several of the Creditors attended at the Time and Place mentioned in such Notice, in order to have made a Dividend of the said Effects, but several of the Creditors not appearing or sending Accounts of their respective Debts upon Oath as required, a Dividend was then postponed because the whole of the said Debts could not be ascertained; therefore the said Trustees do hereby give Notice to the Creditors of the said Vincent Phipps, that they are desired to meet at the House of the said Joseph Lawrence, on Monday the 24th Day of November Instant, for the Purposes mentioned in the former Notice, and such of the said Creditors that cannot personally attend, are desired to empower some Person or Persons by Letter of Attorney to receive their respective Dividends, and to give Releases and Indemnities to the said Trustees for the same; and the said Creditors are desired, in the mean Time, to send an Account upon Oath of their respective Debts to the said Trustees, in order that a just Dividend may be then made among the said Creditors, as far as the said Effects will reach; and the said Trustees do hereby give Notice, that in case any Creditors shall neglect to comply with the Terms mentioned in this and the former Notice, they will be excluded from any Benefit arising from the said Vincent Phipps's Effects, for the Trustees are determined without further Notice, then to make a Dividend of the said Effects, among such of the Creditors as have complied, or shall comply, with the Terms mentioned in this and the former Notice.

THIS is to give Notice, that I John Guy, of the Town and Port of Hastings in Suffex, Fisherman, have lost, by the late Winds, between Ninety and One Hundred Nets, Seven Ropes, and Forty and odd Drove Barrels, betwixt Hastings and Beachy, on Thursday the 7th of November now Instant; two of the said Barrels have the Name of John Guy at large upon them, and the rest are mark'd J. G. Any Person or Persons finding all of them, or any Part thereof, and giving Intelligence where they are, or helping me to them again, shall have reasonable Satisfaction for his or their Care and Trouble.

Witness my Hand, this 13th Day of November, 1755.

JOHN GUY.
