

at His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: At Noon there was a very splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, of both Sexes, at the Castle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and an Ode set to Musick, was performed upon the Occasion. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies; after which there was a Ball in the Castle, and the Evening concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Whitehall, November 15, 1755.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Friday the 17th of October last, about One o'Clock in the Morning, William Collet, (then Keeper of the Turnpike Gate at Buscot, near St. John's Bridge in the County of Berks,) was shot dead by a Person unknown, supposed to be a Highwayman, or other Horseman, who came to rob him, (a Pistol-Ball having been found lying on the Ground by him, which had gone in at the upper Part of his Breast, and come out at the lower Part of his Back;) His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person who committed the Act of Murder abovementioned, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Accomplice he might have therein, who shall make such Discovery of him, that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and likewise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of the said Murderer.

HOLDERNESSE.

Admiralty Office, Nov. 15, 1755.

Notice is hereby given, to all Sea Officers who are absent with Leave, from my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that it is their Lordships Directions, that they return to England, within six Months after the Date hereof; or they will forfeit all the Half-Pay that may be due to them.
