St. James's, December 6.

THE following Address of the Principal, Professors, and Masters of the University of Aberdeen, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Principal, Professors, and Masters of the University of Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Principal, Professors, and Masters of an University under your Majesty's immediate Patronage, from a deep Sense of the Happiness we enjoy under a mild and legal Government, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with the sincerest Expressions of Duty and Gratitude.

We have observed, thro' your Majesty's auspicious Reign, the Laws permitted to take their due Course—We have seen Property protected, Piety and Learning promoted, Industry rewarded, and every Thing encouraged that tends to the Prosperity and Honour of the Nation: But now, when the public Tranquillity seems to be in Suspence, thro' the Ambition of a restless Power, always ready to foment Com-motions—when, after many Encroachments, your Majesty's Colonies are openly invaded, and Europe is threatened with new Confusions,—permit us, most cordially to renew our Protestations of inviolate Attachment to our Royal Patron, and to the Protestant Succession in his August Family.

At the same Time, may we have the Honour to assure your Majesty, that the many Instances of Royal Clemency, and the admirable Measures taken within these nine Years to allure the Inhabitants of these populous Parts of your Kingdom, to know their own Happiness as British Subjects, are gradually producing their desirable Effects.

For our Part, we esteem it our chief Honour, to be contributing to carry on so salutary a Work, by unwearied Endeavours to diffuse a due Sense of our National Felicity; and, with ardent Prayers to Almighty God for your Majesty's Preservation, by inculcating on the Youth of this University, the inestimable Blessing of such a King, and such a Constitution, as are now the Glory and Happiness of Great Britain.

Aberdeen, Nov. 20, 1755.*

Signed in our Name and Presence, by T. Blackwell, Principal.

Brussels, Nov. 28. All our Advices confirm that there are no other Waggon's at Douay, than those that arrive there daily, with Carriages and Wheels for Cannon, from different Parts of the Country.
