From Tuesday January 6, to Saturday January 10, 1756.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th Day of December 1755:

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Proclamation, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of November last, "For recalling and prohibiting Seamen "from serving Foreign Princes and States; for "giving Encouragement to Seamen and Able-bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board "His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting "Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall "conceal themselves; and also for taking up all "Stragling Seamen;" His Majesty was graciously pleased to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, should be paid to every such Seaman and Landman respectively, who should, on or before the Thirty first Day of this Instant December, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by the said Proclamation; as likewise that the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should, on or before the said Thirty first Day of this Instant, discover any Seaman, or Seamen, who should conceal themselves, so that such Seaman, or Seamen, should be taken for His Majesty's Service: And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards is now near expiring; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, That the Time limited by the said Proclamation, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty First Day of this Instant December, to the Thirty First Day of January next inclusive. And that the said respective Bounties and Rewards be continued to be paid by the Persons, and at the Times, directed by His Majesty's aforesaid Proclamation.

St. James's, January 10.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace and Freeholders of the County of Aberdeen, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace and Freeholders of the County of Aberdeen, North Britain, met at Aberdeen the Twenty-third Day of December, in the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Five.

May it please your Majesty,

IN a Time of Difficulty and Danger, Duty to the best of Kings, and Attachment to the happiest of Constitutions, induce your faithful Subjects of this County to express their sincere and grateful Loyalty.

When our Fellow Subjects Abroad were unjustly invaded, your Majesty's Paternal Care preserv'd them: If our Native Country is threatned, your Majesty's Wisdom provides for its Defence, and your Virtue personally protects us.

Our Duty and Interest coincide to support your Illustrious Family, which, through Variety of Periods, has ever pursued the great Ends of British Government; to preserve publick Justice, and to promote private Happiness.

May the Almighty long preserve your Sacred Person, protect your Family, and grant Success to your pious, just and truly Royal Measures: And may your Majesty be graciously pleased to believe,
