Glamorgan, William Bruce, of Llanblethian, Esq;

N O R T H W A L E S.

Carnarvon, Owen Wynn, of Penbryn, Esq;

AT the Court at St. James's the 27th Day of January 1756,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the 18th. of December last, for paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; And likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the 31st Day of this Instant January— And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given should be continued to be paid for some Time longer: — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the 29th Day of February next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 11th Day of November last. And likewise that the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said 29th Day of February next, discover any Seaman or Seamen, who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly. W. Sharpe.

Admiralty Office, February 16, 1756.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, That Information hath been sent to this Office, That a Vessel, Dutch built, about 120 Tuns Burthen, and named, as appears inside her Stern, the Wild Schud, laden with Coals and some empty Casks, was found in Distress, without any living Creature in her, and on the 9th Instant brought safe into St. Ives Pier, in the County of Cornwall.

Whitehall, Feb. 14, 1756.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a Letter, directed to John Lewis, Beadle of Ilkeworth, in the County of Middlesex, was, on the 10th Day of January last past, received by him, and found to contain the Words and Figures following, viz. "Plymouth January 5. 1755.—Sir, This comes with my humbel Service to You I would have you prepare Yourself a Coffin and Shrowd against Peace and the Bell to ring for You to carey you to Hell give my humbel respects to Mr. John Burcett and tell Him the Same, my Love to Your Wife to which I have had many Start with so no more from Your Ever Lasting Damnation Seas You."—And that it is apprehended that the Name John Burcett, in the said Letter, was intended to denote John Derbyshire Birkhead, Esq; a Justice of the Peace, acting for the said County, and living in the said Parish; and that such Letter was contrived, and wrote, by some malicious Person, or Persons, there, as the said Mr. Birkhead has had, within three Years past, several private Injuries done to his Property, and scandalous Papers have been affixed up, in the said Parish, reflecting on him for having done his Duty as a Magistrate: His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice, the Person, or Persons, principally concerned in contriving and writing the said Letter, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter,) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices in contriving and writing the same. so that he, she, or they, being principally concerned in the said Facts, may be apprehended and convicted thereof: The said Reward, of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, said, upon the Conviction of one, or more of the Offenders.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a farther Encouragement, I, the said John Derbyshire Birkhead, of Iseworth, in the County of Middlesex, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid, by me, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

John Derbyshire Birkhead.

Whitehall, February 16, 1756.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Sunday last, about the Hour of Nine at Night, James Moore, a Prisoner in the Gatehouse Prison, Westminster, and committed there for stealing, out of the Stables of William Underwood, a Brown Gelding, and a bright Bay Mare out of the Stables of George Williams, did make his Escape out of the said Prison: And whereas there is great Reason to believe, from the Circumstances attending the said Escape, that some Person or Persons were privy to, and aiding and assisting in the Escape of the said James Moore, particularly some Person or Persons in the said Goal; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons privy to, or concerned in contriving, or in aiding and assisting in the Escape of the said James Moore, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, (except the Person principally contriving or aiding and assisting in the Escape of the said James Moore, should prove to be the Turnkey of the said Prison) to any one of them, who shall discover the Person or Persons privy to, or concerned in contriving or aiding and assisting in the Escape of the said James Moore, so that he, she, or they, concerned therein, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; And His Majesty does also farther promise His most gracious Pardon, to any Accomplice of the said James Moore, who shall ratify, or cause to be retaken, the said James Moore, so that he may be convicted of the Offence with which he stands charged.

H. FOX.

And, as a farther Encouragement, I John Maffett, Gent. at the Gatehouse Westminster, do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons apprehending and bringing to Justice the said James Moore, to be paid upon his Conviction.

John Maffett.

N. B. The said James Moore is about five Feet eight Inches high, inclin'd to be thin, his Hands and Face much pitted with the Small Pox, of a brownish Complexion, about Nineteen Years old, tho' he appears to be about Twenty six, Left Handed, his right Hand lamish, wore his own short curled Hair, of a lightish Brown, was born at Bagshot in Surry, had on when he made his Escape a whitish coloured Surtout Coat, with two Pateches near the Waist behind, two Waistcoats, one red and white Cherry Derry, with wrought Brass Buttons, the other Linnen, dirty Leather Breeches, black rib'd Stockings, White Metal Buckles, and a tolerable good Hat shaped, wore a Neckcloth, and had brown Fustian Sleeves with two red Worsted Buttons. He had in his Pocket, sealed in a Piece of Paper, the Will and Power of Thomas Kirke, belonging to the Ramillies Man of War; dated in March 1755.

Whereas on the 27th Day of June last past, George Blight, an Officer to the Sheriff of the County of Cornwall, (being in the Execution of his Office, levying a Sum of Money on the Goods and Chattles of John Cock, of Ederlilian in the said County, Esq; by Virtue of the said Sheriff's Warrant, on a Writ of fieri facias, issued out of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, at the Suit of Arundell Cock, Gent.) was barbarously Murdered by a Shot received from a Gun, fired at him by the said John Cock, and that at the last Assizes held for the said County, a Bill of Indictment was found against the said John Cock, for the said Murder; and that notwithstanding legal Processess have been issued on the said Indictment, and all possible Endeavours used for apprehending and bringing to Justice the said John Cock, the same have hitherto proved ineffectual; and the said John Cock, being invironed and protected by a Set of Smugglers and other desperate Persons, there is great Reason to believe that he will not be apprehended by the ordinary Course of Law: In order for the more speedy apprehending and bringing to Justice him the said John Cock, a Reward of One Hundred Pounds is hereby offered to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend him the said John Cock, and get him secured in one of His Majesty's Goals within the Kingdom of England; the said Reward to be paid by Mr. John Wallis, Junior, of Camelford in the said County, on the said John Cock's being tried and convicted of the said Murder.

Feb. 1756.

John Wallis, Jun.

Admiralty Office, Feb. 14, 1756.

This is to give Notice, That a General Court of the Commissioners for managing the Charity for Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, will be held at this Office on Thursday the 26th Instant, at Twelve o'Clock.

J. Cleveland.

Navy Office, Feb. 4, 1756.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Friday the 20th Instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning precisely, they will be ready to Treat with such Persons as are willing to serve into His Majesty's Stores at Deptford, a Quantity of English Canvas, that they may attend with their Proposals at that Time; and such Persons as are Residents in the Country, and do not choose to attend on the Day of Treaty will, by sending a Letter to the said Commissioners, tendering their Quantities and lowest Prices, be intitled to an equal Proportion with other Persons, provided their Demands are as reasonable: And such Persons as intend to treat for the several Sorts of Canvas used in the Navy, from Number 1. to Number 8. inclusive, are to take Notice that it is expected they fall in their Prices on the several Numbers according to Custom, which they are to signify their Approval of in their Tenders.

Navy Office, February 7, 1756.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that there is in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, Money to pay off all Bills register'd on the Course of the Navy in the Month of August 1755, with the Interest due on such as carry the same, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally empowered to receive the said Bills, may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment accordingly.

Victualling-Office, Feb. 12, 1756.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Friday the 5th of March next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat for White and Bay Salt.

And on the same Day the said Commissioners will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to undertake to furnish Brine Salt, made after the late Mr. Thomas Lowndes's new-invented Method.

The Conditions of the Contract for the said Brine Salt may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling-Office, London; or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Liverpool; or the Collector of the Salt Duties at Middlewich in Cheshire.

Victualling-Office, February 16, 1756.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 1st of March next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat for One Thousand Quarters of Pease, to be delivered free of all Charge and Risque into His Majesty's Stores at Portsmouth, and the like Quantity into His Majesty's Stores at Plymouth, for the Service of His Majesty's Navy.

A Quarterly General Court of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, will be held at their Office in Dean's Yard, Westminster, on Monday the 1st Day of March next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon.

bery; G. Keith; S. Crowder and H. Woodgate; P. Davey and B. Law; and B. Collins.

N. B. This Dictionary hath not only met with the Approbation of several Merchants, who have assisted in the Undertaking, and revised the Sheets from the Press, but has been likewise most remarkably encouraged by some noble Personages of the greatest Abilities in the State. And as the Coins, Weights and Measures of all Trading Nations are reduced to the English Standard, (a Task never attempted by any other Writer) the Whole is rendered more commodious and useful to the English Reader, than any Work of the Kind extant.

For Our COUNTRY.

THE Grand President, and Grand Committee of the Laudable Order of Anti-Gallicans, being desirous of encouraging, as much as in them lies, the Trade and Manufactures of this Kingdom and it's Colonies, do hereby give Notice, that they will give the following Premiums.

For any Person or Persons (provided they have been two Years in actual Copartnership) Inhabitants of South Carolina of Georgia, who shall feed the largest Quantity of Silk Worms, so as to produce good and merchantable Cocoons, on or before the First Day of September 1756, not less than Forty Bushels, the Sum of Fifteen Pounds Sterling.

For the next greatest Quantity, not less than Twenty Bushels, the Sum of Ten Pounds Sterling.

To any Person or Persons (provided they have been two Years in actual Copartnership) who shall draw the greatest Quantity of merchantable Raw Silk, from Cocoons produced in the said Colonies, on a Reel of Six Feet Six Inches Diameter, and having not less than Eight, nor more than Sixteen Cocoons on a Thread, on or before the First Day of September 1756, not less than Fifty Pounds Weight, of Sixteen Ounces, the Sum of Fifteen Pounds Sterling.

For the next largest Quantity, not less than Thirty Pounds Weight, the Sum of Ten Pounds Sterling.

The above Premiums to be determined and paid at Charles Town in South Carolina, in December 1756, by the Honourable Hector Berenger De Bonfain, Esq; William Bull, Esq; and Othniel Beal, Esq; or in Case of the Death of any of either of them, then the Vacancy to be supplied by such Person or Persons as the Governor, for the Time being, shall please to appoint.

The above Advertisement is to be considered an Amendment to the former ones on this Subject, and not as fresh Premiums; and in Case no Claimants should appear for the Year 1756, tho above Premiums shall stand good for the Year 1757.

N. B. The Filature at Savannah in Georgia, is particularly excepted against in the above Premiums; it being apprehended the Competition of private Filatures against the Publick established one, will be too unequal.
