Whitehall, February 24, 1756.

Whereas William Holt was convicted, at the last Quarter Sessions, held for the County of Surry, of the Robbery of Mr. John Goff, of Mitcham, in the said County, and has been since transported for the same; and whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the said Mr. Goff has lately received an Anonymous Letter, directed "To Mr. John Gullf at Matcham in Surry, in which was contained the following Words, "Mr. Gullf,

"This comes to let you know that the first Time you are caught and the two Jonathen Wilds you will be made suffer for sending away that poor Innocent Man you know who I mean and you will see some of us very speedily to your Sorrow": His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons concerned in contriving and writing the said Letter, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein.

H. FOX.

And as a farther Encouragement, I the said John Goff, of Mitcham in Surry, Gent. do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by me, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders. John Goff.

Admiralty-Office, March 1, 1756.

Whereas, notwithstanding the Direction of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st of January last, and published several Times in this Paper, for the Officers appointed to the Marine Companies to repair, with the utmost Expedition, to the Head Quarters of the Company to which they were appointed, unless commanded elsewhere by their Superior Officers, several of them have neglected to repair to such Quarters, tho' they have received no contrary Commands from a Superior Officer; This is to give Notice to all those who have been guilty of the said Neglect, that if they do not repair to their proper Head Quarters (agreeable to the aforementioned Direction) by the 25th of this Month, their Names will be laid before the King, with Information of their Neglect, in order that other Officers may be appointed in their Room, if His Majesty shall think it fitting.

By Command of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty,

J. Cleveland.
