THIS is to give Notice, That Luke Medwin, a Draper, in Great Marlow in the County of Bucks, a middle Six'd Man, with one Leg remarkably smaller and shorter than the other, with Martha Dolben, a young Woman of about three or four and twenty Years of Age, rather low of Stature, with a roundish Face, light Grey Eyes, light Brown Hair curled in her Neck, went away the 21st of this Month with a Minor of Rank and Fortune. He is just turned of Eighteen, but appears older, about five Feet six Inches high, has a fresh Colour and Dark Eyes.—He wears a short Brown Wig, a dark Brown Sur-tout, with either a brown Thickset Coat and Waistcoat, or an Ash Colour'd Cloth Coat and Buff Waistcoat, and large open Silver Buckles. Whoever will give Information at the Bar of Mount's Coffee-house in Grosvenor-street near Grosvenor-square, London, where the said Minor is, so that he be returned home before any Marriage is had or solemnized, between the said Minor and the said Martha Dolben, shall receive a Reward of Fifty Guineas for the same. The Minor is hereby promised a kind Reception and a total Oblivion of all that is past, if he returns Unmarried to his Friends; and the others are to expect the utmost Severity of the Law, if they encourage him to continue with them.

By Virtue of a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer made the 29th Day of January last, between Francis Brace and others, Plaintiffs, and John Berington, Esq; and others, Defendants, The Creditors of Thomas Cornwall, late of Buckland in the County of Hereford, Gentleman, deceased, are required to come in and prove their Debts before Charles Taylor, Esq; Deputy to His Majesty's Remembrancer, at the King's Remembrancer's Office, in the Inner Temple, London, on or before the 1st Day of Easter Term next, otherwise they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

By the KING's Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1752, in the 25th Year of his Reign, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Veneral Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Venereal Injuries, and all the lurking Relicts or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Venereal Distemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6 s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleet, are absolutely cured.

Sold at the Widow Adams's, Printer, at West-Chester; sold also at Mr. John Seymour's, Bookseller, in Ball Alley, near George Yard, Lombard Street; and at Mr. Gamble's, Distiller, at Gravesend.

WHEREAS Mrs. Mary Green, (whose Maiden Name was Campion, the Widow and Relict of Philip Green, who was Brother to Macklin Green, formerly an Ironmonger in Bartholomew Lane, and afterwards in Aldermanbury.) died lately at Worcester, where she had lived a Widow about Forty Years; This is to give Notice, that if there be any Person or Persons living who can prove him, her or them, to be the next of Kin to the said deceased Mary Green, may hear of something to his, her or their Advantage, by applying to Mr. James Holyoake, a Proctor at Worcester.
