AT the Court at St. James's the 28th Day of February 1756,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty
in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the 27th of January last, for paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; And likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the 29th Day of this Instant February— And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given should be continued to be paid for some Time longer:— His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the 31st Day of March next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 11th Day of November last. And likewise that the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said 31st Day of March next, discover any Seaman or Seamen, who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly. W. Sharpe.

Brussels, March 5. The French Troops upon the Frontiers of the Austrian Dominions in the Low Countries, continue to remain very quiet; but Part of those that have been quarter'd this Winter in Lorraine and Alsace, are now marching towards the Coasts of the Ocean. According to our Advices Yesterday from Paris, the Comte de Lannion is already set out to take upon him, as Marchal de Camp, the command of the Troops that are assembling on the Coast of Provence.

Admiralty-Office, March 1, 1756.

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the Direction of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st of January last, and published several Times in this Paper, for the Officers appointed to the Marine Companies to repair, with the utmost Expedition, to the Head Quarters of the Company to which they were appointed, unless commanded elsewhere by their Superior Officers, several of them have neglected to repair to such Quarters, tho' they have received no contrary Commands from a Superior Officer; This is to give Notice to all those who have been guilty of the said Neglect, that if they do not repair to their proper Head Quarters (agreeable to the aforementioned Direction) by the 25th of this Month, their Names will be laid before the King, with Information of their Neglect, in order that other Officers may be appointed in their Room, if His Majesty shall think it fitting.

By Command of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty,

J. Cleveland.

Navy Office, Feb. 4, 1756.
