St. James's, March 23.

The following Address of the Members of the Breconshire Society has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Members of the Breconshire Society, formed for the Encouragement of Agriculture and Manufactures, and for promoting the general Good of the County, assembled at their General Monthly Meeting held at Brecon, on Wednesday the 10th Day of March 1756.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, with Hearts filled with grateful Sentiments of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare of these Kingdoms, do humbly beg leave to express the deep Sense we have of your Royal Wisdom, in the vigorous Measures you have so steadily pursued, in asserting your undoubted Right to your American Dominions, in the prudent and interesting Treaties you have so successfully concluded, and in the happy Effects of your great Humanity and Royal Bounty to the unfortunate Sufferers at Lisbon; these, with the many other Instances of your Majesty's Wisdom and Benevolence, all concur to add fresh Glories to your Majesty's Reign, to endear your Person and Government to the Heart of every Britain, and to defeat the insolent and unjust Usurpations of an ambitious and perfidious Power, envious of your Greatness and our Happiness.

And if an Invasion, or any other Emergency during the present critical Conjunction, should require your Majesty's loyal Subjects to appear in the Defence of your sacred Person, or the Security of the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House; we hope our Actions shall then declare how sensible we are of the Benefits derived to us, from the Wisdom and Equity of your Majesty's Government; in Support of which, we with true Zeal humbly offer to form ourselves into a Troop of Light Horse compleat.
