

this Port for Lisbon. According to our last Advices from Nimerow, the Contagious Distemper, which ceased for some Time in the Neighbourhood of that City, is broke out again; and that the greatest Precautions are already taken to prevent its spreading. The Small Pox continues to make great Havock in this City.

Copenhagen, March 13. On Saturday last the King went to see the Squadron that is equipping in this Port; after which his Majesty went to the Dock-Yards, and viewed the Ships on the Stocks. The King has appointed Wednesday the 21st of next Month to be observed as a Day of Fasting and Humiliation throughout this Kingdom. Last Wednesday one Lazare, a Jew about thirty Years of Age, was publickly baptized in the Chapel at the Palace, and named Frederick Jules, the King and Queen, the Queen-Mother, and the Princess Charlotte, standing Godfather and Godmothers. Great Numbers of the Nobility and Gentry, of both Sexes, were present on this Occasion.

Brussels, March 18. On Saturday last, being the Birth-Day of the Archduke Joseph, who then entred into the 16th Year of his Age, Prince Charles of Lorraine, our Governor General, received the Compliments of the Nobility and Gentry on that Occasion. Several Persons belonging to the English Nation are arrived here on their Return from France to their own Country. According to our last Advices from Metz, a large Train of Artillery, as Cannon, Mortars, Bombs, &c. are marched from thence for the Coast of Normandy. Our Letters from Strasbourg likewise take Notice, that a large Train of Warlike Stores was also expected to set out from thence in a few Days for Normandy.

Hambourgh, March 19. Count de Rosenbergh, the Emperor's Envoy at the Court of Denmark, having received his Recal, arrived here Yesterday Morning from Copenhagen; and, in the Afternoon, continued on his Journey to Vienna.

Hague, March 23. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland have this Day re-assumed their Deliberations. Yesterday Morning the Prince Stadtholder went to view the Foundry established here; and having examined into the Nature of those Works, with which he seemed highly entertained, his Highness ordered a handsome Present to be given to the Workmen.

War-Office, March 23, 1756.
