St. James's, April 22.

The following Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, having been transmitted by the Reverend Dr. Law, Vice Chancellor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Chancellor of the University, was by him presented to His Majesty: His Majesty was pleased to receive it very graciously, and to direct the Duke of Newcastle to assure the University of the Continuance of His Protection and Favour.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of your University of Cambridge, with Hearts

Hearts full of Gratitude for your Majesty's constant and unwearied Endeavours to preserve the Rights of your Imperial Crown, and to promote the Happiness of your People, beg Leave, at this critical Juncture, to renew our sincere and solemn Assurances of inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Illustrious House.

Zeal for our Holy Religion, a deep Sense of our Duty, and a full Conviction of the inestimable Blessings long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, concur to inspire us with Abhorrence of the present unjust Attempt to shake the Stability of your Throne; the same Considerations will ever powerfully engage us to join with Unanimity in the most vigorous and effectual Measures for its Support, and faithfully instil the same Sense of our common Duty and Interest into all those that are committed to our Care.

To the more general Motives of Affection and Loyalty we ought to add your Majesty's continued Favour and repeated Bounty to your University: These constantly excite in us the most grateful Sentiments, and justly demand our public and most dutiful Acknowledgements.

May the Great God of Hosts, in this and all other Times of Difficulty and Danger, guard your most Sacred Person, and give Success to your righteous Cause; protect your Fleets and Armies in the Day of Battle, and disappoint the Enterprizes of those who delight in War: May he prolong that Life which is so dear to a happy and obedient People; infuse your Royal Virtues into the several Branches of your august House, and thence raise a Succession of wise and upright Princes, who, with equal Glory and Felicity, shall sway the Scepter of these Kingdoms to all future Generations.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Northumberland, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Matthew White, Baronet: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Northumberland.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, at this critical and alarming Conjuncture, to approach the Throne, to assure your Majesty of our steady and unalterable Fidelity and Affection to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family.

We cannot sufficiently express our Indignation and Repentment at the insolent Menaces of a haughty and perfidious Enemy, to disturb, by an hostile Invasion, the Happiness which these Kingdoms enjoy under your Majesty's most wise, mild, and gracious Government; and permit us in this publick Manner to declare, that in Case your Majesty should think fit to call forth our Loyalty into Action, your Majesty shall ever find us ready and determined, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, resolutely to defend your Majesty's Sacred Person and most Illustrious Family, and the Religion, Laws, and Liberty of these Kingdoms, against all your Enemies.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Walter Blacket, Bart. and Matthew Ridley, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with our sincerest Thanks for your Majesty's tender and paternal Regard for the Safety of your People, by the Encrease of your Forces for the Protection of these Kingdoms from the Invasion with which they are now threatned.

Fully assured of the Justice of the Measures taken by your Majesty, in the necessary Defence of the undoubted Rights and Possessions of your Crown—Truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, the Continuance of which, as well as of every other Thing that can be dear and valuable to a free People, depends on preserving the Protestant Succession in your Illustrious House.—And warmed with that Repentment and Indignation, which the Insolence and Perfidiousness of the French must raise in every honest British Breast, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Zeal and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and that no Means in our Power shall remain unexerted, which may tend to defeat and frustrate any Attempts tempts which may be made against the Safety of the one, or the Tranquility of the other.

May the Almighty crown your Majesty's Arms with Victory, and your Councils with Success! May he protect your Royal Person from all Perils and Dangers, and grant you long to reign over a grateful, free and happy People!

Given under our Common Seal the 6th Day of April, 1756.

The following Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Walter Blacket, Bart. and Matthew Ridley, Esq;: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as it is with the greatest Pleasure and Satisfaction we consider the many Blessings we enjoy under your most gracious and excellent Government, by which our Rights, Liberties and Privileges are preserved and established; so we cannot, without the utmost Detestation, hear of the perfidious Attempts and barbarous Cruelties of the French in your American Colonies, and their audacious and wicked Designs of invading some Parts of your Majesty's Kingdoms: but the happy Experience we have had of your great Wisdom, the Prudence and Justice of the Measures you have taken, and the Goodness of your Cause, give us just Grounds to hope, that, with the Blessing of the Almighty, you will frustrate and defeat their unjust and pernicious Attempts.

And we do humbly offer your Majesty our sincerest Thanks for your paternal Care and Protection of your People; and do assure your Majesty that we will, with true British Zeal, defend your Sacred Person and Government against these Invaders and Disturbers of the Peace and Safety of your Kingdoms.

And that our hearty and sincere Prayers are, that your Majesty may long and happily reign over us, and that these Kingdoms may always flourish and enjoy their present happy Constitution both in Church and State, under the Government of your Majesty and your latest Posterity.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be affixed this Ninth Day of April, 1756.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John Ligonier, one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty having been graciously pleased to acquaint your two Houses of Parliament, that a Design hath been formed by the French Court, to make an hostile Invasion upon Great Britain or Ireland; we your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, in Common Council assembled, do beg Leave to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of so unjust and desperate an Enterprise; projected in Revenge for your Majesty's generous and steady Conduct in maintaining the just Rights and Possessions of your Crown and Subjects in North America.

With the most grateful Acknowledgements and unfeigned Loyalty, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Resolution to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Majesty, and the Religious and Civil Rights of your Subjects; and, upon every Occasion, we shall be ready to give the most evident Proofs of all the Zeal which the most dutiful Subjects can shew to the best of Princes.

In Testimony whereof, we have set our Common Seal, the seventeenth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and fifty six.

The Corporation of Bath, to shew their Zeal upon this Occasion, do give a Guinea for every Man that will voluntarily enter into Colonel Arabia's Regiment of Foot.

And Ralph Allen, Esq; also gives a Guinea for the like Purpose.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgessees, and Common Council of the Town of Lancaster, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgessees, and Common Council

Council of the Town of Lancaster in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Common Council of the Town of Lancaster, moſt humbly implore your Majesty's Pardon for taking off your Royal Attention at this Time from Affairs of the higheſt Importance, when your Majesty's Kingdoms are threatned with an Invaſion by the avow'd Enemies of the Liberties of Mankind, as well as your Majesty.

But being greatly alarm'd for the Safety of your Majesty's Perſon, and fired with Indignation at the Inſults offer'd to your Majesty for exerting that Power God has put into your Hands in maintaining the ſettled and acknowledged Rights of Great Britain in America, we cannot reſiſt the earneſt Deſire we have, at this critical Conjuncture, of aſſuring your Majesty, in the moſt ſolemn Manner, of our inviolable Attachment and Fidelity to your Majesty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and our determined Reſolution to ſupport and defend both at the Hazard of all that is dear to us.

Conſcious of the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majesty's auſpicious Reign, we pray to Heaven for a long Continuance of that Life on which ſo much depends; and poſſeſſing in the happieſt Degree our Civil and Religious Liberties, we reſt ſecure they will be convey'd down to lateſt Poſterity under the Influence of Princes of your illuſtrious Family, governing according to thoſe Maxims which have ſo juſtly acquired your Majesty the Hearts of your People.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh has been preſented to His Majesty: Which Addreſs His Majesty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majesty.

WE the Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, humbly beg Leave to join with all your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, in teſtifying our Abhorrence of the Intentions of the Court of France, to make an Invaſion upon Great Britain or Ireland, an Enterpriſe formed in Deſpair and Rage, on Account of your Majesty's having reſented the Encroachments, Depredations and Murders committed by the French in North America.

It is now above Forty Years ſince their Monarchy was preſerved by the Indulgence ſhew'd them in the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne; the Treaty of Utrecht, which then ſav'd them from Ruin, has been ever ſince their conſtant Object for the Violation of publick Faith.

They lately formed a Scheme to invade your Majesty's Foreign Dominions, merely on Account of your Royal Protection of the Rights of Great Britain, which your Majesty's wife and prudent Meaſures has rendered Abortive; and we cannot now omit expreſſing our great Satisfaction, in the immediate Aſſiſtance we ſhall have from thoſe very Territories, which the common Enemy had mark'd out for Deſtruction: This we owe to your Majesty's gracious Compliance with the Deſires of the two Houſes of Parliament.

May the Almighty long preſerve your Sacred Majesty, the Protector of your Subjects, and Defender of the Rights of Great Britain; and may your Subjects, with Gratitude, be ever ſenſible of the Happineſs they have enjoy'd, and cannot fail to be bleſſ'd with, during your Majesty's Reign.

Edinburgh, April 15, 1756.
