

Hearts full of Gratitude for your Majesty's constant and unwearied Endeavours to preserve the Rights of your Imperial Crown, and to promote the Happiness of your People, beg Leave, at this critical Juncture, to renew our sincere and solemn Assurances of inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Illustrious House.

Zeal for our Holy Religion, a deep Sense of our Duty, and a full Conviction of the inestimable Blessings long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, concur to inspire us with Abhorrence of the present unjust Attempt to shake the Stability of your Throne; the same Considerations will ever powerfully engage us to join with Unanimity in the most vigorous and effectual Measures for its Support, and faithfully instil the same Sense of our common Duty and Interest into all those that are committed to our Care.

To the more general Motives of Affection and Loyalty we ought to add your Majesty's continued Favour and repeated Bounty to your University: These constantly excite in us the most grateful Sentiments, and justly demand our public and most dutiful Acknowledgements.

May the Great God of Hosts, in this and all other Times of Difficulty and Danger, guard your most Sacred Person, and give Success to your righteous Cause; protect your Fleets and Armies in the Day of Battle, and disappoint the Enterprizes of those who delight in War: May he prolong that Life which is so dear to a happy and obedient People; infuse your Royal Virtues into the several Branches of your august House, and thence raise a Succession of wise and upright Princes, who, with equal Glory and Felicity, shall sway the Scepter of these Kingdoms to all future Generations.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Northumberland, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Matthew White, Baronet: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Northumberland.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, at this critical and alarming Juncture, to approach the Throne, to assure your Majesty of our steady and unalterable Fidelity and Affection to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family.

We cannot sufficiently express our Indignation and Repentment at the insolent Menaces of a haughty and perfidious Enemy, to disturb, by an hostile Invasion, the Happiness which these Kingdoms enjoy under your Majesty's most wise, mild, and gracious Government; and permit us in this publick Manner to declare, that in Case your Majesty should think fit to call forth our Loyalty into Action, your Majesty shall ever find us ready and determined, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, resolutely to defend your Majesty's Sacred Person and most Illustrious Family, and the Religion, Laws, and Liberty of these Kingdoms, against all your Enemies.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Walter Blacket, Bart. and Matthew Ridley, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with our sincerest Thanks for your Majesty's tender and paternal Regard for the Safety of your People, by the Encrease of your Forces for the Protection of these Kingdoms from the Invasion with which they are now threatned.

Fully assured of the Justice of the Measures taken by your Majesty, in the necessary Defence of the undoubted Rights and Possessions of your Crown—Truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, the Continuance of which, as well as of every other Thing that can be dear and valuable to a free People, depends on preserving the Protestant Succession in your Illustrious House.—And warmed with that Repentment and Indignation, which the Insolence and Perfidiousness of the French must raise in every honest British Breast, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Zeal and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and that no Means in our Power shall remain unexerted, which may tend to defeat and frustrate any Attempts
