

missive, dutiful Manner, to express our sincere unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person, Family and Government, and humbly to offer our best Efforts and Services in Defence of your Majesty's Safety and the Quiet of your Dominions, against which the insolent Enemy has dared to publish repeated Threatnings. Our Example at this critical Conjunction has not been wanting, and we reckon it our Duty and Honour, in these alarming Times of Danger, to declare our Readiness to hazard our Lives and Fortunes for the Support and Establishment of your Majesty's Throne, as well as to repel the hostile Attempts of these perfidious Disturbers of Great Britain.

That Almighty God may give Success and Victory to your Majesty's Fleets and Arms, and long preserve your Majesty's inestimable and precious Life, to be the Guardian of your People, is the fervent Supplication and Prayer of your Majesty's faithful and loyal City of Glasgow.

Glasgow, Signed in Presence and by April 7, 1756. Appointment,
George Murdoch, Provost.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant General Campbell, Groom of the Bed Chamber: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, now assembled, beg Leave, in these Times of publick Danger, in the most humble Manner, to express our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our strong Abhorrence of the Designs of an insolent and perfidious Enemy, who, after having made unjust Attempts upon your Majesty's Colonies Abroad, hath also dared, in a publick Manner, to threaten an Invasion of the British Dominions, and to disturb the Peace of your Majesty's auspicious and happy Government at Home.

Inspired by the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty to your Sacred Majesty, we reckon it our Duty and Honour to preserve, to the utmost of our Power, among the People committed to our Care, the same Sentiments of Loyalty, and to animate their Zeal in Defence of your Majesty's Authority and Government, with which, both we and they are deeply convinced our most valuable Interests and Liberties are inseparably connected.

That Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, may long preserve your Majesty's inestimable Life, direct your Councils, give His Blessing and Protection to your Fleets and Armies, and that the Crown of these Realms may, to the latest Posterity, remain in your Majesty's Royal Family, is, and shall be, the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

Glasgow, Signed in our Name, and at April 15, 1756. our Appointment, by Robert Findlay, Moderator.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Robert Manners, and Richard Crowle, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hyndford, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of your Town of Kingston upon Hull, humbly beg Leave, at this Time, when your Majesty and your Kingdoms are threatened with an Invasion from France, to approach your Royal Presence to profess our Detestation and Resentment of so unjust and desperate a Design, and at the same Time to declare, with the greatest Gratitude, the high Sense we have of the Happiness and Prosperity we have enjoyed under your Majesty's just and prudent Administration, during the whole Course of your Reign; and our firm and unalterable Resolutions to contribute, to our utmost Power and Ability, to the Support of your Majesty's Person and Government, and the perpetuating the Succession of the Crown of these Kingdoms in your Royal Family, against all your Enemies.

May the Almighty grant that your Majesty's steady and wise Measures to oppose their unjustifiable Attempts upon these Kingdoms, and to bring them to make your Majesty ample Satisfaction for their Infringement of Treaties with you, may be crowned with Success, and be followed by a lasting Peace; and that your Majesty may Live many Years in Health and Glory to enjoy the Fruits of it, and the Love, Duty and Reverence of a happy People, made so by your Majesty's constant Goodness and Care for the Preservation of their Rights and Liberties.

Given under our Common Seal this Fourth Day of May, in the 29th Year of your glorious Reign.
