By the Lords Justices General, and General
Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Facelyn, C. Kildare.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath Signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands Prorogued to Tuesday the Eighth Day of this Instant June, be further Prorogued to Tuesday the Twentieth Day of July next; We do therefore Publish and Declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is, hereby further Prorogued to Tuesday the Twentieth Day of July next; Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin,
the 1st Day of June, 1756.

By their Excellencies Command,
Tho. Waite.

GOD Save the KING.

Kensington, June 8.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverness, has been presented to His Majesty by John Campbell, Esq; Member of Parliament for the said Burgh, &c. being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Northumberland, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverness, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, with our dutiful and thankful Acknowledgments, for your early and continued paternal Care of the Interests of your Crown and People, when they are threatened at Home, and invaded Abroad, by the faithless French, the avowed Enemies of our Religion and Country.

Your Navies and Armies, under the Protection which God has been pleased to vouchsafe to you and them, render your People secure and happy, in the Enjoyment of their Religion, Laws and Liberties, and give Hopes, that the Invasion upon the Rights of your Crown in America will bring Disappointment and Ruin upon the wicked Projects of the perfidious Aggressors.

Suffer us now, most Gracious Sovereign, to offer you our most grateful Thanks for your fatherly Care and Royal Bounty extended to our Neighbourhood. Its happy Effects begin to appear, and we rejoice in the Prospect of seeing Industry, Manufactures, and lawful Obedience, take Place where they were never properly established.

May your Navies and Armies be still victorious; may your Royal Issue succeed to the Crown of your Dominions to latest Ages; and may your Majesty live long, and rejoice in the Happiness of your People: These are our earnest Prayers.

Subscribed the 10th Day of May 1756, by our Appointment and in our Presence, by John Hoffack, Provost.
