WHEREAS the Time draws near for holding a Fair in this County, called Welch Fair, for the selling of horned Cattle, which said Fair used to be held at Islington, but lately has been held at Barnett: And whereas we have Cause to believe the said Infestation, which, during the Summer Time, in this County has greatly decreased, has for some Years, by Reason of this Fair, broke out again, and raged very much during the Months of September, October, and November, Therefore, in order to prevent such Spreading of the said Distemper, and in Pursuance of the Powers and Authorities given, as well by his Majesty's Orders in Council, as by the several Acts of Parliament in that behalf made; We do order and direct, That no Fair or Market, or other publick Place of Sale, be held or kept within the County, for the Sale of horned Cattle, (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) from the Fifteenth Day of August next, to the Tenth Day of October following. And that no Person or Persons shall or do presume to drive, send, or remove, or cause to be driven, sent, or removed, any horned Cattle (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) to any Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale in this County, within the Time before-mentioned, under the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, mentioned, sett, or imposed, by His Majesty's said Orders in Council, or the said Acts of Parliament, or any of them, in that Case made. IN June 1755, I was seized in Jamaica with a Bilious Fever, a Disorder very common in that Island, and in a few Hours was delirious; they bleed me and gave me a Vomitic, but my Fever continuing very High, I took Dr. James's Powder, (that is sold at Mr. Newbery's in St. Paul's Church-yard) one Dose of which vomited and purged me pretty much, and then sweat me profusely, after which I slept some Hours, and the Fever entirely left me. I thought it was prudent however to take a Dose or two of Bark, which I did, and soon recover'd my Strength. My Carpenter, James Cateburn, was in our Passage Home taken with a Fever, which threw him into strong Convulsions, so that his Arms, Legs and Body, were contracted or distorted to a very great Degree, and every one in the Ship gave him over for lost; but upon taking two Doses of the Powders, which worked him pretty much, he perfectly recovered.
