

II.

That all the Honours of War shall be granted the Garrison on their Surrender, such as, To march out with their Firelocks on their Shoulders, Drums beating, Colours flying, 24 Charges for each Man, Match lighted, four Pieces of Cannon, and two Mortars, with 20 Charges for each Piece, a covered Waggon for the Governor, and four others for the Garrison, which shall not be searched on any Pretence.

III.

That all the Garrison, including all the Subjects of his Britannick Majesty, as well Civil as Military, shall have all their Baggage and Effects secured, with Liberty of removing and disposing of them as they shall think proper.

IV.

That the Garrison, including the Officers, Artificers, Soldiers, and other Subjects of His Britannick Majesty, with their Families, who shall be willing to leave the Island, shall be provided with proper Transport Vessels, and conducted to Gibraltar, by the shortest and most direct Navigation; that they shall be landed there immediately upon their Arrival, at the Expence of the Crown of France, and that they shall be supplied with Provisions, out of those that may be yet remaining in the Place at the Time of its Surrender, as long as they shall remain in the Island, and during their Voyage at Sea, and that in the same Proportion that they receive at present. But if a greater Quantity should be wanted, that they shall be furnished with it at the Expence of the Crown of France.

V.

That proper Quarters shall be provided for the Garrison, with an Hospital fit for the Sick and Wounded, whilst the Transports are getting ready, which shall not exceed a Month, to be reckoned on the Day of signing this Capitulation, and with regard to those who shall not be in a Condition to be transported, they shall stay, and Care shall be taken of them, till they are in a Condition to be sent to Gibraltar by another Opportunity.

II.

The noble and vigorous Defence which the English have made, having deserved all the Marks of Esteem, and Veneration, that every Military Person ought to shew to such Actions; and Marshal Richelieu being desirous also to shew General Blakeney the Regard due to the brave Defence he has made, grants to the Garrison all the Honours of War that they can enjoy, under the Circumstance of their going out for an Embarkation, to wit, Firelocks on their Shoulders, Drums beating, Colours flying, twenty Cartouches each Man, and also lighted Match; he consents likewise, that Lieutenant General Blakeney, and his Garrison, shall carry away all the Effects that shall belong to them, and that can be put into Trunks. It would be useles to them to have covered Waggons; there are none in the Island, therefore they are refused.

III.

Granted, except to the Natives of the Island, upon Condition that all the lawful Debts of the Garrison, to the Minorquins, who are to be considered as French Subjects, shall be paid.

IV.

Transport Vessels shall be furnished from among those which are in the Pay of his most Christian Majesty, and proper for the Military and Civil Garrison of Fort St. Philip, and their Families. These Vessels shall carry them by the safest Navigation to Gibraltar, with the shortest Delay possible, and shall land them immediately, upon Condition, that after their being landed, these Ships shall be provided with sufficient Passports, that they may not be molested on their Return to the Port of France they shall be bound for: And Hostages shall be given for the Safety of the Transport Vessels and their Crews, who shall embark in the first neutral Ship that shall come to fetch them, after the said Vessels shall be returned in the Port of France.

The Garrison shall also be supplied with Provisions, as well during their Stay in the Island, as for 12 Days Voyage, which shall be taken from those that shall be found in the Fort St. Philip, and distributed on the Footing, that they have been usually furnished to the English Garrison; and if more be wanted, it shall be furnished, paying for it as shall be agreed by Commissaries on both Sides.

V.

The Vessels being ready for the transporting the Garrison, the providing Quarters, as demanded, becomes unnecessary; they shall go out of the Place with the least Delay, in order to proceed to Gibraltar; and with regard to those who cannot be embarked immediately, they shall be permitted to remain in the Island, and all the Assistance they shall want shall be given them for their going to Gibraltar, when they shall be in a Condition to be embarked; a State
