The CADET, A MILITARY TREATISE.

By an OFFICER.

IN my Passage from Surinam to Barbadoes, in July 1755, my Ship's Carpenter, William Blair, was seized with a violent Fever, attended with Purging and Vomiting; he soon grew delirious; I gave him a whole Paper of Dr. James's Fever-Powder, (which is sold at Mr. Newbery's in St. Paul's Church Yard.) It purged, vomited, and sweat him very much; in six Hours after I gave him another Dose, which entirely removed the Disorder. William Kemp, an old Sailor, 60 Years of Age, was seized in the same Manner, and had the same bad Symptoms, but upon taking one Paper of the Powder, which operated much in the Manner above mentioned, he recovered.

London, Jan. 26,
1756.

James Lundin,
Captain of the Africa.

N. B. As Surinam is much subject to this Sort of Fever, the English and Dutch Merchants who Trade thither, would do well to furnish their Correspondents with this Powder, for by its Means many Lives would undoubtedly be saved.

This Art is very useful in taking down Sermons, Speeches, Tryals and Debates, as well as Variety of other Things which require great Dispatch, and may be learned by the Book alone, without the Assistance of any Person.

Sold by Aulay Macaulay, the Author, at the Union Coffee House directly facing the Royal Exchange, London; and sold at the Author's House in St. Ann's Square Manchester and by the Bookfellers, Haberdashers and Shopkeepers in Great Britain and Ireland.

WHEREAS Benjamin Votier the Younger, late of Grundisburgh in the County of Suffolk, a common Soldier in some of the Regiments on the Irish Establishment, was intended to have embarked from Ireland with Sir Peter Halkett's Regiment for Virginia, in Quality of a Corporal, in January 1755, and after strict Inquiry no Account can be had of him since; This is to inform him (if living) that by applying to the Rev. Mr. Sherringham at Swiland, or Mr. James Barnham, Attorney, at Bungay in Suffolk, or to Mr. William Capstick, in Clifford's Inn, London, he may hear of something greatly to his Advantage. If dead, any Person making Proof thereof to the said Mr. Sherringham, Mr. Barnham, or Mr. Capstick, shall be handsomely rewarded.
