The great Defence the Publick has shewn to the Merit of the London Magazine, has occasioned the Years 1754 and 1755, and the first Numbers of the present Year to be reprinted, which are now to be had. In January, February, March, April and May last, were given Maps of the Island of Minorca, Flintshire and Denbighshire; Plans of Lisbon, of the Town and Harbour of Port Mahon, of the City and Harbour of Brest, and of the New Bridge to be built from Black-Friars; a new Chart exhibiting the Seat of War in the Mediterranean; a View of that large Ship called the Great Harry; a fine Head of General Blakeney; View of Timmouth Castle, and a Head of Mr. Butler, Author of Hudibras. No Expence is spared to make the London Magazine worthy the Reception it has constantly met with, which has frequently enabled the Proprietors to oblige the Publick with an Half-Sheet extraordinary.

WHEREAS the Partnership between Henry Probyn, Senior, Richard Spenceley and Henry Probyn, Junior, of Milk-street, London, Mercers, dissolved the 14th Day of this instant August; This is therefore to give Notice, that the said Trade is now carried on by the said Henry Probyn, Senior, and the said Richard Spenceley only.

THE Creditors of John Hunter, of the Town of Pembroke in the County of Pembroke, Merchant, are desired by his Assignees to meet them at the Nag's Head Tavern in Bristol, on Friday the 17th Day of September instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, to assent to or dissent from the bringing of one or more Action or Actions at Law, or Suit or Suits in Equity, for Recovery of or relating to the said Bankrupt's Estate, or for compounding or submitting the Matters in Dispute to Arbitration, and on other special Affairs.
